Write your answer to Section B Question (a) here:

From the extract you learn Larry is a caring person as he wants to help Francis by offering to be someone that Francis can talk to which is made clear from the sentence "what's the matter" and "it must be something?". You also learn that Larry is a very observing character when he says "I've been watching you Francis. During callistics. And he is also knowledgeable and good at spotting potential which can be seen when he says "you have outstanding reflexes. You have a natural athletic gait". I also believe Larry is an encouraging character as in ^{one} ~~two~~ sentences he tells Francis "you're going to be a champion" in order to lift his self-esteem. And finally I'm given the impression that Larry is looked up to when Francis says "Larry Lesalle's opinion could never be dismissed".

The writer uses language like "it must be something" "what's the matter?" "you have outstanding reflexes" "I know the perfect sport for you" and "your going to be a champion" to really portray Francis and Larry's relationship as a brotherly situation with Larry at using a doctor above to help motivate and boost the confidence of a low self esteemed Francis who gives the impression that he cares and thinks about Larry's opinion with sentences like "Larry Lesalle's opinion could never be dismissed" and "avoiding his eyes, I was suddenly angry at my self pity." also the sentence "I'm rotten at everything; I confessed" really shows that Francis can confide in Larry.

A lack of confidence also arose in the wreck centre when Nicole Renard was raped by Larry Lesalle. His lack of confidence was shown by his inability to stop or even prevent Larry from raping the girl Francis loved saying "I was just paralysed" and "Why? Why didn't I just do something... tell someone". I believe Francis' lack of confidence in this scene is spawned from his feelings of inadequacy to Larry which is indicated by Larry when he says "look Francis get out of here and don't turn back" and leave me to show her dance moves". I believe even though Francis stayed and witnessed these events his lack of confidence on trying to stop a hero stopped him.
