

Write your answer to Section C here:

The programme I choose to watch was
The Inbetweeners.

Throughout the programme it lacks maturity which makes the show so emotionally brilliant. The show follows
4 teenage boys: Will, Simon, Neil and Jay.
It shows what normal teenagers are like on a daily basis. Its humorous jokes
of sex, women makes the show humorous
in a way no other programmes does.

The show evokes emotions of somewhat shock as it presents events which shocks most viewers to say 'Oh my God'

The show provokes joys of teenagers and the clumsy and idiotic behaviour, and events
which are memorable and shocking joys.

I would say the main strength of the show is the Humour. It can make even the most of people laugh as it makes situations of normal teenagers funny.

It makes serious matters, funny exciting and wanting to watch more.

I personally think there aren't any weakness or faults with programme.

I would strongly recommend the show to all ages as it make you laugh, cry and laugh really. The show is a hit around the UK making it want the show to carry on.
