

SECTION A: MODERN POETRY

There are six questions in this section. You should answer ONE of them.
You should spend about 40 minutes on this question.

In Such a Time as This

1. Look again at Hide and Seek (page 1) and Electricity Comes to Cocoa Bottom (page 9).

How does each writer create a particular atmosphere and reveal the feelings of a child or children waiting for something exciting to happen?

For each poem you should comment on:

- the way the writer describes the atmosphere of the place where the child or children wait
- their feelings both as they wait and after it is all over
- the use of language to show atmosphere and feelings.

Support your answer with examples from the texts.

OR

2. Look again at Refugee Blues (page 15) and ONE other poem from In Such a Time as This which shows how cruel or unkind people can be to each other.

How do the writers show the effects of cruelty and unkindness on the people described in these poems?

For each poem you should comment on:

- the way the writer describes the cruel or unkind actions
- how the people affected react to the cruelty or unkindness
- the use of language.

Support your answer with examples from the texts.

OR

Identity

3. Look again at Not My Best Side (pages 25–26) and Warning (page 29).

How do the writers present the central character or characters in these poems?

For each poem you should comment on:

- how each writer shows the personality of the character or characters
- any surprising or unusual things about the character or characters
- the use of language.

Support your answer with examples from the texts.

OR

4. Look again at Follower (page 20) and ONE other poem from Identity which deals with childhood memories.

How do the writers show the ways in which these memories have affected the person who is looking back?

For each poem you should comment on:

- how the events and/or places are described
- the feelings of the person who is looking back
- the use of language.

Support your answer with examples from the texts.

OR

Nature

5. Look again at Thistles (page 43) and Trout (page 45).

How do the writers give a detailed impression of the object or objects they are describing?

For each poem you should comment on:

- how the imagery helps you to picture the object or objects
- what the writer makes you think or feel about the object or objects
- the use of language.

Support your answer with examples from the texts.

OR

6. Look again at Wind (page 35) and ONE other poem from Nature which shows how natural events or objects can affect people strongly.

How do the writers show the feelings which people have about these events or objects?

For each poem you should comment on:

- the ways in which the events or objects are described
- what we learn about people's feelings or reactions
- the use of language.

Support your answer with examples from the texts.
