The head teacher or principal at your school or college is concerned about behaviour and is determined to make improvements. They have asked you to write down your views and suggest ways to improve behaviour at your school.

Write a report for your head teacher or principal. The title of your report should be 'How to Improve Behaviour'. [20 marks]

The quality of your writing is more important than its length. You should write about one to two pages in your answer book.

Every year, many schools and colleges get involved in different activities to support local charities. Cake sales, raffles, fun runs and competitions are some of the ways that people raise money.

You would like to raise money for a local charity by organising a summer fun day. Prepare a talk for your class, persuading them to get involved in organising the fun day.

Give details about:

- the charity you wish to support and why
- possible activities that will raise money
- what your classmates can do

Write what you would say. [20 marks]

The quality of your writing is more important than its length. You should write about one to two pages in your answer book.
