INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

No dictionaries are allowed.

The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question.

No certificate will be awarded to a candidate detected in any unfair practice during the examination.

1. Choose one question - (a) or (b).

- (a) The French magazine “Le Monde des Ados” wants to know about your favourite TV programme. Write a letter to the readers using full sentences. Write about 90 – 100 words. [20]

Start and finish your letter in the appropriate manner.

Say: what your favourite TV programme is when you watch it
 who your favourite actor is and why why you particularly like this programme
 what has happened recently on the programme (give 2 details).

Ask: what is the most popular TV programme in France.

- (b) You have just been to see your favourite group/singer in a concert. Write a letter to your penfriend about it using full sentences. Write about 90 – 100 words. [20]

Start and finish your letter in the appropriate manner.

Say: where the concert took place and how you got there what you thought about the group’s/singer’s performance on the night
 why you particularly like this group/singer
 what you did after the concert (give 2 details)
 when you will be going to your next concert.

Ask: who your penfriend’s favourite group/singer is.
