 Study Source A.

Source A The Bolshevik Revolution of October/November 1917.

Although later Communist propaganda said differently, the Bolshevik revolution was small-scale. Although Lenin was in charge, Trotsky did most of the planning. There was little fighting, much less than there had been in March. Success was achieved by a small group of dedicated revolutionaries.

What does Source A suggest about the reasons for Bolshevik success in seizing power in October/November 1917? (4 marks)

0	2
---	---

 In August 1914 Russia became involved in the First World War. Explain why Nicholas II became increasingly unpopular as Tsar during this war. (6 marks)
