SECTION A

America, 1920–1973: Opportunity and inequality

Answer all six questions on page 3 and then turn to page 5 for Section B

Read Interpretations A and B and answer the questions 01, 02, 03 and 04 on page 3.

Interpretation A John Gates, in his book 'The Story of an American Communist' published in 1959.

In the early 1930s Gates was a student. He had discovered the writings of Karl Marx in which he said that "he found the answers to the causes of the Depression, socialism and a world brotherhood of man". Soon afterwards he joined the Young Communist League.

We planned a demonstration of the unemployed during President Roosevelt's inauguration on March 4, 1933. I was arrested. Listening to the broadcast when I was in jail, it did not sound exactly like a New Deal to me. I did not believe the President and had no confidence in him. He announced the closing of the banks. It sounded to me like a possible dictatorship.

Interpretation B Rexford Tugwell in his book 'The Democratic Roosevelt' published in 1957.

Tugwell was a member of the Democratic Party and a close friend of Franklin D Roosevelt. In 1932 he joined a team to advise Roosevelt during the presidential election. Roosevelt consulted Tugwell about the banking crisis and the New Deal.

When Roosevelt died our society was much further forward than when he became President. It is true that there was a change from laissez-faire towards more government regulation. This helped those with the least power to bargain. We are a lucky people. If it had not been for this democrat we might have fallen to a dictatorship. For that being talked about when he took charge.

0 1 What does Interpretation A suggest about President Roosevelt's New Deal? Explain your answer using Interpretation A. [2 marks] 0 2 How does Interpretation B differ from Interpretation A about President Roosevelt's New Deal? Explain your answer using Interpretations A and B and your contextual knowledge. [4 marks] 0 3 Why might the authors of Interpretations A and B have a different interpretation about President Roosevelt's New Deal? Explain your answer using Interpretations A and B and your contextual knowledge. [6 marks] 0 4 Which interpretation do you find more convincing about President Roosevelt's New Deal? Explain your answer using Interpretations A and B and your contextual knowledge. [6 marks] Describe the problems faced by immigrants in the United States in the 1920s. 0 5 [6 marks] 0 6 Which of the protests below had the greater impact on the Civil Rights campaign in America in the 1950s and 1960s:

- Martin Luther King and peaceful protests
- Black Power and militant protests?

Explain your answer with reference to both protests.

Conflict and tension, 1894–1918

Source A From a speech made by Winston Churchill before the First World War when he was First Lord of the Admiralty.

A navy is a sheer necessity for Britain, but a kind of luxury for Germany. They build their navy so that they can play a part in the world's affairs. It's just sport to them. It is life and death to us.

Source B An Austro-Hungarian postcard produced in 1914 after the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in Sarajevo.

The fist represents Austria-Hungary, while the writing says 'Serbia must die'.

Source C From advice given by Conrad von Hotzendorf, the leader of the Austro-Hungarian armed forces, to the Austro-Hungarian government after the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in 1914.

This assassination is Serbia's declaration of war on Austria-Hungary. If we miss this chance, Austria-Hungary will break up. We must wage war to prevent this.

Conflict and tension, 1918-1939

Source D From a speech made by Lloyd George three days before the General Election of December 1918.

We propose to demand the whole cost of the war from Germany. Germany must pay to the last penny.

Source E A German newspaper cartoon published in July 1919, entitled 'Clemenceau the Vampire'.

The figure on the bed represents Germany.

Source F From a speech by Ebert, President of Germany in May 1919. This speech was printed in a British newspaper at the time.

The German people trusted the promise that it would be a peace based on President Wilson's Fourteen Points. What is now given us in the peace terms contradicts that promise. Such a dictated peace will provoke fresh hatred and, in the course of time, fresh killing.

Conflict and tension between East and West, 1945–1972

Source G From a letter written by Winston Churchill to US President Roosevelt just after the Yalta Conference in 1945.

The Soviet Union has become a danger to the free world. A new front must be created to stop her onward sweep. This front should be as far east as possible before our armies melt away.

Source H A poster about the Marshall Plan.

This poster won first prize in a competition sponsored by the European Recovery Programme. The aim of the poster was to capture the goals and spirit of the Marshall Plan.

Source J From a speech by George Marshall in June 1947.

The seeds of Communism spread and grow in the evil soil of poverty.

The Marshall Plan is directed not against any country or doctrine but against hunger, poverty, desperation and chaos. Its purpose should permit the emergence of conditions in which freedom can exist.

Conflict and tension, 1990-2009

Source N From a BBC interview with Hamid Karzai, September 2001. Once a government minister in Afghanistan, Karzai refused to work for the Taliban who, it was said, killed Karzai's father. In 2000 and 2001 he travelled to the United States to get support for an attack on the Taliban in Afghanistan.

Al-Qaeda, together with their foreign supporters and the Taliban, destroyed miles and miles of homes and orchards and vineyards... They have killed Afghans. They have trained their guns on Afghan lives... We want them out.

Source O An American cartoon published in 2009 at the end of George W Bush's presidency.

It appeared in 'The Hill', which is a newspaper with a small readership, published in Washington DC.

Source P From President George W Bush's announcement of the invasion of Iraq on US radio, March 2003.

Good morning. American and coalition forces have begun a campaign against Saddam Hussein. Our cause is just, the security of the nations we serve and the peace of the world. And our mission is clear, to disarm Iraq of weapons of mass destruction, to end Saddam's support for terrorism, and to free the Iraqi people.
