Section C: Depth StudyGermany, 1919–1945

Some of the questions require you to use sources. In these questions, you will need to use your knowledge of the topic to interpret and evaluate the sources. When you are asked to use specific sources you must do so, but you may also use any of the other sources within the question if they are relevant.

You should spend about 70 minutes on this section.

Answer Question 7 and ONE other question.

- 7 Study the sources carefully and then answer the questions which follow.

SOURCE C

When I resume active work, it will be necessary to pursue a new policy. Instead of working to achieve power by revolution we shall have to win election to the Reichstag against the Catholics and Communists. If out-voting them takes longer than out-shooting them, at least the results will be guaranteed by their own constitution. Any lawful process is slow. Sooner or later we shall have a majority and after that we shall have Germany.

Hitler writing whilst in prison in 1923.

SOURCE D

An election poster produced by the Social Democrats in 1932 entitled, 'The worker in the empire of the swastika'. It suggests what life might be like for workers under the Nazis.
