- The total number of marks for this paper is 75.
- You will be awarded marks for quality of written communication in part (c) of the following questions: Section B, questions 3, 4, 5 and 6; Section C, questions 8 and 9.

Section A

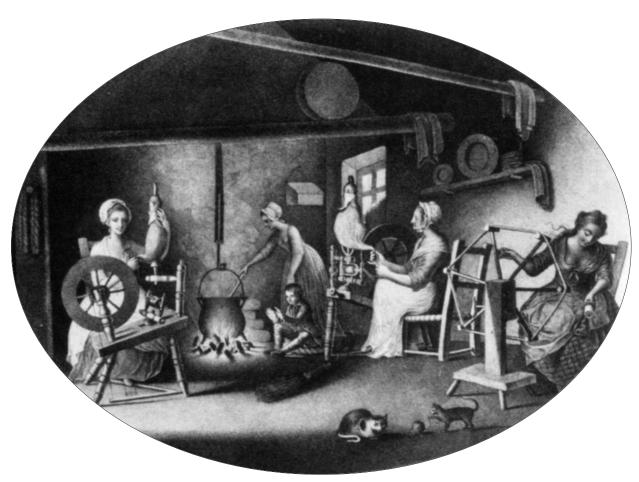

Some of the questions require you to use sources. In these questions, you will need to use your knowledge of the topic to interpret and evaluate the sources.

You are advised to spend about 25 minutes on this section.

Answer EITHER Question 1 OR Question 2.

1 Study the sources carefully and then answer the questions which follow.

SOURCE A

An illustration of the domestic system in the early eighteenth century.

SOURCE B

The unending noise of the million hissing wheels, the smells that are all around. All this is terrible but what upsets me most are the hundreds of helpless children whose thin and distorted limbs and dim hollow eyes give each tiny, trembling body an unrealistic look of premature old age.

A description of children working in the mills, from a novel written in 1840.

1 (a) Study Source A.

What can you learn from Source A about the domestic system? Use details of the source and your knowledge to explain your answer. [5]

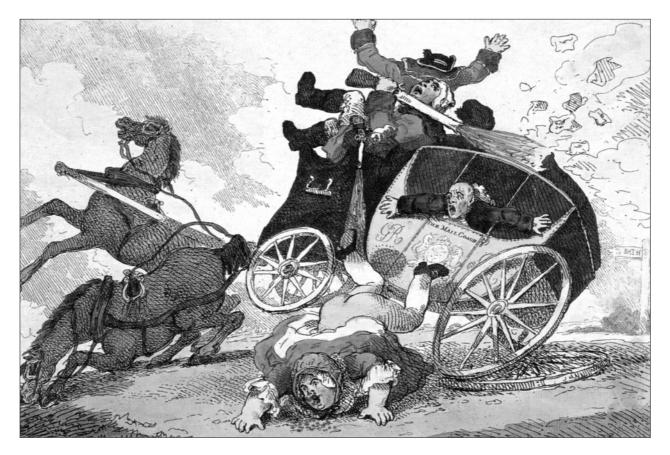

(b) How did John Kay's invention of the flying shuttle change the production of cloth? [6]

(c) Study Source B.

Does this source fully describe the poor working conditions in mills in the early nineteenth century? Use the source and your knowledge to explain your answer. [9]

2 Study the sources carefully and then answer the questions which follow.

SOURCE C

An eighteenth-century cartoon about road travel.

SOURCE D

The turnpike roads are magnificent being wide, smooth and well kept. In this country, everyone who uses these roads is obliged to contribute towards the cost of repair. At equal distances there are gates called 'Turnpikes' where you have to pay. The keeper of the turnpike gives you a ticket and a token, so that you need not pay a second time on your way back that same day.

A French visitor to England writing in the early eighteenth century.

2 (a) Study Source C.

What can you learn about road travel from this cartoon? Use details of the source and your knowledge to explain your answer. [5]

(b) How did the work of Thomas Telford improve road transport?
