Answer Question 1 (Section A) and either Question 2 or Question 3 (Section B).

Write your answers in the spaces provided in this booklet. Use supplementary sheets when there is insufficient room in this booklet. Write your name at the top of each supplementary sheet, indicating clearly the number of the question you answer. Put the supplementary sheets inside this booklet.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question or part-question.

You will be awarded marks for the quality of your written communication.

Your answers must be relevant and must make full use of information given to be awarded full marks for a question.

You are reminded that you should always support your answers using your knowledge and understanding of the topic chosen.

No certificate will be awarded to a candidate detected in any unfair practice during the examination.

Source B

The Rebecca Riots were the result of great poverty affecting the farming community of south-west Wales in the late 1830s and early 1840s. The harvests of 1837 and 1838 had been very poor and the three seasons from 1839 to 1841 were the wettest in living memory.

[From David Howell, The Rebecca Riots (1988)]

- (b) Use the information in Source B and your own knowledge to explain the reasons for rural protest in the late 1830s and early 1840s. [4]
