Write your name, centre number and candidate number in the spaces at the top of this page.

Answer Question 1 (Section A) and either Question 2 or Question 3 (Section B).

Write your answers in the spaces provided in this booklet. Use supplementary sheets when there is insufficient room in this booklet. Write your name at the top of each supplementary sheet, indicating clearly the number of the question you answer. Put the supplementary sheets inside this booklet.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question or part-question.

You will be awarded marks for the quality of your written communication.

Your answers must be relevant and must make full use of information given to be awarded full marks for a question.

You are reminded that you should always support your answers using your knowledge and understanding of the topic chosen.

No certificate will be awarded to a candidate detected in any unfair practice during the examination.

Source B

Some southern states tried to keep control over black people by passing laws which separated them from white people. This involved making sure that black people went to separate schools and were kept in poorly paid, unskilled jobs with few trade union rights.

[Adapted from a school textbook by P. Martin, The USA, 1919-1941 (1997)]

- (b) Use the information in Source B and your own knowledge to explain the treatment of black Americans in the southern states. [4]
