No certificate will be awarded to a candidate detected in any unfair practice during the examination.

Source B

The 1920s was a decade of freedom for American women. They received the right to vote. They took part in activities usually associated with men. Driving motorbikes and cars, flying aeroplanes and smoking cigarettes became female activities.

[Adapted from a school textbook by The Schools History Project, The USA between the wars (1998)]

- (b) Use the information in Source B and your own knowledge to explain the changing lifestyle of American women during the 1920s. [4]

Source C

Music is entering more and more into the daily lives of people. The black musicians of America are playing a great part in this change. They are not held back by traditions. They have new ideas and constantly experiment. They are causing new blood to flow into the veins of music.

[From a newspaper interview given by a black American Jazz musician (1927)]

- (c) How useful is Source C as evidence to an historian studying why Jazz music became popular?
Explain your answer using the source and your own knowledge. [5]
