SOURCE A

Everyone should have human rights. These include the right to life and the right to privacy. In some countries these rights may be abused. For example, people could be tortured or killed by the state. People's actions could be closely watched by the police who could intercept mail and listen to private conversations.

In Northern Ireland one of the government's roles is to safeguard human rights. It can do this by passing laws and making sure authorities and public bodies have policies to promote human rights and ensure these are put into practice.

Young people have rights too. Sometimes people say that with rights come responsibilities and that society expects young people to be socially responsible. Young people can be socially responsible by thinking about how their behaviour can affect others and by helping others and their community.
