INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

- Write your name in capital letters, your Centre Number and Candidate Number in the spaces provided on the Answer Booklet.
- Write your answers in the Answer Booklet.
- This question paper has four questions. You must answer all questions.
- You are allowed 30 minutes preparation time at the start of the examination to read questions, study the print extracts and make notes.
- You are allocated 1 hour to answer the questions.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

- The number of marks for each question is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.
- The total number of marks for this paper is 60.

This document consists of 4 printed pages and 1 insert.

The extract is the front cover, contents page and one other inside page from NME magazine (7 October 2006, IPC Ignite!).

Advice – Studying the extract

You will have 30 minutes to read all the questions, study the extract and make notes.

Read all the questions first.

Study all the pages carefully, including all words, photographs and graphics.

Make notes to help with your answers.

You may make notes on the extract, in your answer booklet, or on separate sheets of A4 paper (not supplied by OCR).

You should put a diagonal line through the notes on your answer booklet at the end of the examination.

Answer each section of every question separately.

- 1 This is a music magazine.
- (a) List two features of the front cover that make it fit the music magazine genre. [4]
- (b) List two features of the inside pages that make them fit the music magazine genre. [4]
- 2 Show how NME magazine tries to seem lively using one example of each of the following:
- (a) page layout [4]
- (b) different fonts [4]
- (c) different colours [4]
- (d) photographs. [4]
- 3 Discuss how NME tries to appeal to its audience.
You may consider:
