- 2 (a) Your friend has recently moved to Israel. He has written a letter telling you about his experiences. He tells you how difficult it was at the beginning, when he did not know anybody. Eventually, a pupil from his class started talking to him.

Write a letter to Yossi, in Modern Hebrew, giving your views and the reasons for your opinions. For example, you could talk about the following:

- activities which you and your friends do together at the weekend
- voluntary work that young people can do to help the community
- which items you would take with you if you moved abroad, and why
- what makes a good party, and why.

Or, you could include your own ideas on the topic of Lifestyle.

2 (b)

Friends are talking about school. Some of them think that going to school is no longer necessary as it is possible to learn everything at home on the computer. Others think that it is important to go to school, to be taught by a teacher and to meet and study with friends.

חברים יקרים,
היום דיברנו על בית הספר, ואתם אמרתם שבית הספר
לא חשוב יותר, כי אפשר ללמוד הכל בבית בעזרת מחשב.
אחרים חושבים שצריך ללכת לבית הספר,
כדי ללמוד עם מורה ולהיפגש עם תלמידים אחרים.

Write an e-mail to your friends, in Modern Hebrew, giving your views and the reasons for your opinions. For example, you could talk about the following:

- a subject which is easy to study on your own, and one which is harder, and why
- advantages and disadvantages of school examinations
- a decision you have made that helped you with your studies and how it helped
- your views on studying in a Jewish school.

Or, you could include your own ideas on the topic of Work and Education.

3 (a) You have received an e-mail from your friend, Danny, asking for your advice.

Danny tells you that he received lots of presents for his birthday. His parents bought him nice clothes and he received books from friends. His grandparents gave him money and he is now finding it difficult to decide how to spend it.

Write an e-mail to Danny, in Modern Hebrew, giving your views and the reasons for your opinions. For example, you could talk about the following:

- your opinion on birthday presents and whether you prefer a present or a sum of money and why
- a special present that you received and why you liked it
- whether you like to do your shopping locally or in a big shopping centre and why
- whether you buy fashionable clothes and why
- who you will go on your next holiday with and why.

Or, you could include your own ideas on the topic of Leisure.

3 (b) A poster appears around your neighbourhood. It asks local residents to participate in a new scheme set up by the council to improve the quality of life in the neighbourhood.

Write an article for the local newspaper, in Modern Hebrew, giving your views and the reasons for your opinions. For example, you could talk about the following:

- sources of pollution in your area
- the importance of green areas for young people
- environmentally friendly ways to travel
- what you have done recently to protect the environment
- where you would like to live in the future and why: in a city or in the countryside.

Or, you could include your own ideas on the topic of Home and Environment.
