2 (b) Marek has sent you an email. He asks how you and your friends spend the weekend; whether you get a lot of homework; what you think to homework and why; and what your ideal future job would be.

Reply to Marek's email in Polish, giving your views and the reasons for your opinions. For example, you could talk about the following:

- describe an activity that you did with your friends last weekend;
- say how many hours you normally spend on your homework each day;
- say what you think about homework and why;
- outline your plans for future work and study.

Or, you could include your own ideas.

Student 1 – Commentary

The answer is fully relevant and well developed. The candidate offers opinions, for example: "Myślę, że moja szkoła powinna ułożyć w jakie dni mamy dostać zadanie domowe...", and offers reasons for these, for example: "W taki sposób będzie łatwo wiedzieć...". There are also one or two points of view which are explained, for example: "Jest to trochę denerwujące, bo..."

The response shows a sound ability to convey a great deal of information clearly. The structure is also well organised.

There are several errors, but they do not impede communication; therefore the lower mark in the top band is awarded.

Content - 13

Some complex sentences are attempted, and they are often successful. The candidate uses a variety of tenses, for example: "Kilka tygodni temu spotkałam się z przyjaciółmi...", "Po uniwersytecie bardzo bym chciała podróżować...", "Często spędzam moje weekendy z przyjaciółmi..."

Range of Language - 4

The response is generally accurate, and although there are several errors (lack of punctuation and wrong spelling, for example: "Nie byłam głodna więc nic nie kupijam."), they occur in more complex structures and are mostly of a minor nature and hence do not affect communication.

The intended meaning is clear in almost all sentences.

Accuracy - 4

Student 2 – Commentary

The response to the task is generally relevant and a good deal of information is conveyed. The piece has a reasonable structure.

The candidate offers opinions, but they are not fully explained, for example: "Ja myślę, że ludzie w naszym wieku dużo czasu siedzą w domu, przed komputerem, albo nic nie robią.", hence the mark of 8 is awarded.

Content - 8

There is some variety of vocabulary, but the structure used is mostly simple.

The candidate tries to use longer sentences using appropriate linking words, but the attempts are not always successful, for example: "Wszyscy musimy zostać aktywni i poza nią to jest dobre dla nas i to korzyści w wielu rzeczy".

The language is fairly simple, and more complex sentences should be there for the higher score.

Range of Language - 3

The piece contains many errors but on the whole, they do not impede communication. Verb forms are sometimes unsuccessful, for example: "Wszyscy musimy zostać aktywni...", ".Powiem innym żeby robyły to samo...". Despite that, the intended meaning is clear.

Reply to Marek's email in Polish, giving your views and the reasons for your opinions. For example, you could talk about the following:

- what you have done recently to keep fit;
- your views on smoking and alcohol;
- give practical advice on how to stay healthy;
- whether or not you would like to live to be 100 years old and why.

Or, you could include your own ideas.

Student 3 – Commentary

This piece of work is fully relevant and very clearly communicated. The response is detailed and contains a lot of information. Ideas and points of view are expressed and explained in all paragraphs. They are well justified by the candidate, for example: "Regularne ćwiczenia są również znakomitym środkiem na zdrowe serce, bo ruch oznacza lepsze krążenie i dotlenianie organizmu, a kiedy serce jest zdrowe, to cały organizm czuje się lepiej."

The response is also well structured, i.e. divided into clear paragraphs.

Content - 14

The candidate uses a wide variety of appropriate vocabulary. There are several examples of more complex sentences used successfully. Present, past and future tenses are all used on at least one occasion, for example: "W ostatni czwartek byłam na pływalni...", "..spożywany w dużych ilościach powoduje uzależnienie", "nie zamierzam tego robić w przyszłości".

Range of Language - 5

The response is accurate, and although there are several errors (punctuation and wrong spelling, for example: napewno, conajmniej), they are of a minor nature and do not affect communication.

The intended meaning is clear in all sentences.

Student 4 - Commentary

The response to the task is rather limited. Some relevant information is conveyed, but not enough to score more marks. The piece would also benefit from improvements to the structure which would make it clearer.

The candidate begins by saying what he was doing last week and then goes on to write what he was doing once he was back home. This is followed by an opinion on homework which is not sufficiently justified or developed. Finally, the candidate is trying to say that in future he would like to have a job which would require knowledge of physics and maths. This last sentence is grammatically incorrect, however, and one can only assume that this is the information the candidate is trying to convey.

The candidate offers simple opinions, and there is some development of basic ideas, for example: "Myśle że praca domowa jest nudna ale ważna bez niej szkoła by była nawet trudniejsza." (I think homework is important. If it wasn't for homework ... learning would be more difficult.) However, they are not explained or justified, hence the mark of 6 is awarded.

Content - 6

There is some variety of vocabulary, but the structure used is mostly simple.

The candidate tries to use longer sentences using appropriate linking words, but the attempts are not always successful, for example: "Jak pojechałem do domu robiłem dwa godziny pracy domowej ale normalnie musze trzy lub cztery godzin karzdy dzien".

There are attempts to use different tenses, but they are in some cases incorrect, for example: "W przyszłym tygodniu pojechałem z kolegą..." meaning "Next week I went with friend.."

Range of Language - 3

The piece contains many errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar but on the whole, they do not impede communication. Verb forms are sometimes unsuccessful, for example: "Nie spotkaliśmy się pół lata, musimi spotkać w blisko przyszłości." Despite that, the intended meaning is mostly clear.

Answer either Question 3(a) or Question 3(b).

3 (a) Youu see this letter in a magazine about a daughter whose mobile phone takes the place of her teddy bear. She sends 1000 texts a month, downloads ring tones and wallpapers, and uses it to take photographs and make videos at school. The mobile gives her parents a feeling of security, but they are now worried that she is over using it.

Moja córka śpi z komórką – zastępuje jej misia. Wysyła po 1000 sms-ów w miesiącu, ściąga dzwonki i tapety, robi zdjęcia i filmy w szkole. Komórka dała nam poczucie bezpieczeństwa, ale martwimy się, że córka używa ją za często.

Alicja

Write a letter to Alicja in Polish, giving your views and the reasons for your opinions. For example, you could talk about the following:

- what can mobile phones be used for?
- at what age should children be allowed to have a mobile phone and why;
- a situation that you have been in when a mobile phone has been/would have been useful;
- whether you think Alicja is right to be concerned and why;
- advice or suggestions for Alicja.

Student 5 – Commentary

Everything written by the candidate is fully relevant and clearly communicated. This is a detailed response with a great deal of information and a well organised structure. It is a very descriptive and imaginative piece of work.

The letter begins with a paragraph describing the role of mobile phones in today's world, information about who is using them, on what occasions and why. Then the candidate says why young children should not be using mobile phones and at what age, in the candidate's opinion, it is appropriate to start using them. The idea is well explained and justified. Then there is a description of a situation when a mobile phone would have been useful. The final paragraph contains a comment on Alicja's concerns, followed by several suggestions about possible reactions to her daughter's behaviour.

The candidate offers opinions, for example: "Moim zdaniem dzieci nie powinny nosić komórki, bo.."., (In my opinion children shouldn't carry mobile phones, because...) and expresses and explains ideas, for example: "Myślę, że narazie nie powinnaś reagować, bo córka zachowuje się normalnie. Porozmawiaj z nią i może powiedz, żeby zostawiła komórke w twoim pokoju i żeby nie pisała z nieznajomymi."(I think you shouldn't react too fiercely at the moment... or may be you could talk to your daughter and ask her to leave her mobile phone in your room. Also, you could remind her to be careful and not to reply to messages from unknown senders.), hence full marks are awarded.

Content - 14

There is a wide variety of appropriate vocabulary and structures. Sentences are well developed and contain a range of subordinate clauses. There is good use of connectives and verb tenses are used successfully. The candidate refers to past, present and future events, and gives personal opinions with reasons.

Range of Language - 5

Verb and tense formations are correct. The candidate uses a wide range of tenses accurately.

However, the mark for accuracy was reduced because of spelling (poniewasz, pamientac) and punctuation mistakes.

Student 6 – Commentary

Everything written by the candidate is fully relevant and clearly communicated. This piece of work is very detailed and has a well organised structure.

The candidate starts with a brief description of her house. Then goes on to write about what she and her family do to protect the environment. This is followed by the candidate's opinion on young people's attitudes towards the environment and detailed description of their actions. Next, the candidate writes about what she will be doing in future in order to protect the environment. The last paragraph describes a lack of facilities for young people in her area and the candidate says that this situation should change. She mentions two ideas which would improve this situation, but these ideas are not well developed.

The candidate offers opinions, for example: "Zgadzam się, że nie jest wiele do robienia dla młodych"(I agree that there is a lack of facilities for young people...), and gives some ideas, for example: "Myślę, że trzeba to zmienić, może zorganizować jakies wyjazdy do najbliższego kina..."(I think this should change. Someone could organise trips to the nearest cinema or theatre...) hence high marks are awarded.

Content - 13

There is a wide variety of appropriate vocabulary and structures. More complex sentences are handled with confidence. There is a good use of connectives and verb tenses are used successfully.

Range of Language - 5

Verb and tense formations are secure.
