Mark 1 ⁹⁻¹³

NIV

⁹ At that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰ As Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. ¹¹ And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased." ¹² At once the Spirit sent him out into the desert, ¹³ and he was in the desert forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and angels attended him.

RSV

⁹ In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰ And when he came up out of the water, immediately he saw the heavens opened and the Spirit descending upon him like a dove; ¹¹ and a voice came from heaven, "Thou art my beloved Son; with thee I am well pleased." ¹² The Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. ¹³ And he was in the wilderness for forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered to him.

GNB

⁹ Not long afterwards Jesus came from Nazareth in the province of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰ As soon as Jesus came up out of the water, he saw heaven opening and the Spirit coming down on him like a dove. ¹¹ And a voice came down from heaven, "You are my own dear Son. I am pleased with you." ¹² At once the Spirit made him go into the desert, ¹³ where he stayed forty days, being tempted by Satan. Wild animals were there also, but angels came and helped him.

Agree

Christians were tempted in Jesus' day to give up the faith or be persecuted / temptation might mean testing and Christians were only human so could not always resist / temptations today like money / possessions / ambition / cars can distract Christians / there are more temptations today because there is more materialism in the 21st century / temptation might take other forms, e.g. adultery / the disciples were taught to pray to resist temptation.

Other views

Christians can rise above temptation through prayer / self control / recognising the damage that giving in can create / there are many examples of Christians resisting and dying as martyrs / giving things up / resisting the need for materialism / the disciples failed to resist temptation sometimes, e.g. arguing about who was greatest / Peter's denials.

Any appropriate example from Mark or Christian tradition should be credited.

Peter got it right at Caesarea Philippi when he said that Jesus was the Messiah / Peter was part of Jesus' inner group so was able to see and learn from miracles like the rising of Jairus' Daughter / the transfiguration / Peter understood that discipleship meant giving up everything / Peter declared his loyalty when Jesus predicted his death / (later Peter went on to be leading apostle in the church and shared his memoirs with Mark's Gospel author).

Other views

Peter denied Jesus / at the transfiguration Peter broke the atmosphere by suggesting building booths / Peter misunderstood after Jesus predicted his death by saying that Jesus should not die and was told by Jesus to get behind him / Peter ran away at the arrest / was not at the crucifixion whereas the women were.
