GCSE Religious Studies (5566) Paper 1

1(c)		Explain why the existence of evil and suffering causes problems for some people who believe in God.
Question Number		Indicative content
1(c)		The main reasons are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • They believe that God is good (benevolent), but if God is good he ought not to want evil and suffering in his world. • They believe that God has the power to do anything (omnipotent) but if God is all-powerful, he must be able to get rid of evil and suffering from the world he created. • However, there is evil and suffering in the world, and so either God is not good or God is not all-powerful, or God does not exist. • This can cause religious people to question their beliefs Other approaches are possible and must be marked according to the levels. If you are unsure of the validity of an answer, it must be sent to review.

2(c)	Explain how seeing design in the world can lead to, or support, belief in God.
Question Number	Indicative content
2(c)	The main features of design are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the way the universe works according to scientific laws such as gravity; • the way humans grow from a tiny blueprint of DNA; • the way the complex mechanism of the eye allows people to see; • the way everything in nature seems to be designed for a purpose • the way the Big Bang worked with the laws of science to produce a universe of order. The main features of Paley's watch are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you came across a watch in an uninhabited place, you could not say it had been put there by chance. • The complexity of its mechanism would make you say it had a designer. The universe is a far more complex mechanism than a watch, • and so, if a watch needs a watchmaker, the universe needs a universe maker. The likely conclusion is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • As the only being which could design the universe would be God, it follows that God must exist. Other approaches are possible and must be marked according to the levels. 4(c)	Explain why some people think the law on euthanasia should be changed.
Question Number	Indicative content
4(c)	The main reasons are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • advances in medicine have led to people being kept alive with little or no quality of life (It is claimed that doctors and relatives should have the right to give such patients a painless death). • People write living wills wanting to have euthanasia if they are terminally ill, and they should be respected. • The National Health Service cannot afford to keep people alive for years on a life- support machine which could be used to save the life of someone who has a chance of recovery. • Many people feel that it is a basic human right to have control about ending your life. • If people have the right to commit suicide, then they have the right to ask a doctor to assist their suicide if they are too weak to do it themselves. • Some people think the law should be made easier because of their religious beliefs. • Some people think the law should be made stricter because of their religious beliefs. Other approaches are possible and must be marked according to the levels. 5(c)		Explain why there are different attitudes to homosexuality in Christianity.
Question Number		Indicative content
5(c)		The Catholic attitude towards homosexuality is that being a homosexual is not a sin but that homosexual sexual relationships are a sin. Catholics have this attitude because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the Bible condemns homosexual sexual activity. • It is the Tradition of the Church • It is the teaching of the Magisterium found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church Many Evangelical Protestants believe that homosexuality is a sin. They believe that there should be no homosexual Christians because the salvation of Christ can remove all sins, including homosexuality. The reasons for this attitude are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The teachings of the Bible which condemn homosexuality: • The Evangelical belief that being born again in Christ can remove all sins. Liberal Protestant's have the attitude that lifelong homosexual relationships are acceptable and homosexuals are welcomed into the Church, but homosexual relationships cannot be equal to Christian marriage. The reasons for this attitude are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The teachings of the Bible need re-interpreting in the light of modern life. • The Christian belief in love and acceptance means that homosexuals must be accepted. Some Liberal Protestants believe that there should be complete equality for homosexuals provided that the sexual relationship is a stable one and the partners are faithful to each other. The reasons for this attitude are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The teachings of the Bible need re-interpreting in the light of modern knowledge and that the anti-homosexual texts in the Bible are a reflection of the Jewish culture at the time rather than the word of God. • Liberal Protestants such as Quakers believe inspiration comes from the Spirit as well as the Bible and if Christians feel the Spirit approves of their homosexuality it cannot be denied. Answers which do not identify at least one specific Christian group cannot go above level 2 Other approaches are possible and must be marked according to the levels.
