El tipo de vacaciones que yo prefiero es unas vacaciones en familia en el sol. Prefiero ~~que mis vacaciones~~ este tipo de vacaciones porque me gusta pasar tiempo con mi familia y prefiero que mis vacaciones ~~sea~~ tienen calor y están soleados porque me encanta tomar el sol en la piscina. Sin embargo, también prefiero que mis vacaciones sean divertidas y lleno de actividades como un centro comercial, una piscina, una playa, bares y buenos restaurantes con comida deliciosa, especialmente los postres.

El año pasado fue de vacaciones a España durante dos semanas con mi madre, mi padre, mi abuela y mi abuelo y amigos mis padres sus hijo y también con uno de mis amigas. Nos fuimos a Lanzarote que esta en el norte este de Fuerteventura. Fuimos a Lanzarote el año pasado porque durante la ~~epoca~~ época del año que fuimos estaba muy caliente, también hemos sido tres veces y todo lo disfrutamos y creo que es buen lugar para estar y es muy divertido. Tiene una bonita playa encerrada por una hilera de tiendas y restaurantes que estaba a cinco minutos a pie de nuestros apartamentos.

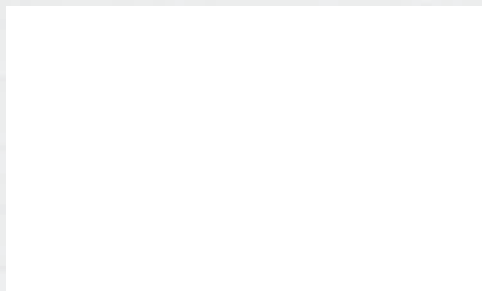

El destino que recomendaria es los apartamentos flora en Lanzarote porque es bueno para los niños ya que hay un montón de actividades que te aburren. Hay dos piscinas, dos tiendas, un bar, una parque, mesas de pool, club de niños, una mesa de ping pong y ~~una~~ una tabla de hockey de aire en los apartamentos. También, hay una ~~fila~~ fila de tiendas, una playa, bares, clubes y restaurantes que estaba a cinco minutos a pie de nuestros apartamentos.

Finalmente quiero ~~este~~ recomendar este destino porque hay un monton de entretenimiento por la noche en el bar de los apartamentos ~~fi~~ y creo que los apartamentos flora son agradables, limpios, seguros

A fin de llegar a mi destino ~~seguido~~ ^{Viajar} tendria por un avion por un periodo de hasta cuatro horas y luego coger un taxi o autobus a los apartamentos flora en puerto Del Carmen, que están a unos veinte o treinta minutos del aeropuerto.

En mis proximas de vacaciones, ~~es importante que~~ voy a ir a Mexico durante dos semanas porque hay algunos buenos apartamentos, hay un monton de atracciones como una piscinas, tiendas, playa, bares, restaurantes y, buenos una parques tematicos, parques acuaticos

Content

The response is fully relevant to the title. It provides a lot of information but the question must be asked - does it reach top band? The response is detailed, albeit with some listing of nouns, and there are frequent examples of well expressed points of view, usually with sound explanation. Clarity is occasionally lost, however (hemos sido tres veces / hay un monton de actividades que te aburres / tendria por viajar un avion) and the final paragraph is only begun with Cuando puedo elegir: it is not clear how this fits into the response. As such, it does not quite reach top band.

12 marks

Range of Language

We first consult the equivalent band and we find strong evidence to support a good range of vocabulary, even with some listing of straightforward nouns (family members in paragraph 2; hay + a list of places in paragraphs 3 and 6) and the repeated use of un monton de. The variety of structures is 'good' rather than anything better. More complex sentences are sometimes used and these are mostly successful, though not always – eg prefiero que mis vacaciones tienen calor. Verb tenses (present, preterite, imperfect, conditional, immediate future) are used successfully. This is a strong performance in the appropriate band.

8 marks

Accuracy

Errors are mainly confined to more complex sentences but verb and tense formations are 'usually correct' (4) rather than 'secure' (5) – eg fue for fui and hemos sido for hemos ido.

Hola me llamo Hollie. Tengo quince años. Tengo los ojos verdes, soy bastante delgada, baja y tengo pecas. También, tengo el pelo largo, ondulado y rubio. Sin embargo, me gustaría el pelo largo, liso y rojo. También, me gustaría tener ~~el pelo largo~~ ser más alta porque no me gusta ser pequeña.

Me veo como una persona simpática y graciosa. También, soy muy trabajadora y motivada. Sin embargo, soy también bastante perezosa. Mi interés es ir al cine, escuchando música Pop o R&B, ir de compras, jugando en el ordenador y ir a natación. También me gusta salir con mis amigas y ir a clase de baile.

Hay cinco personas en mi familia en total. Mi madre, mi padre, mi hermano, mi hermana y yo. Mi hermano se llama Daniel y tiene dieciocho años. Daniel es alto y bastante gordo. My life

Task Planning Form – not submitted

Content

With this title there is little that could be considered irrelevant. The response conveys a lot of information clearly but clarity is just occasionally lost, in spite of the straightforward nature of the information (mi el pelo / me suele salir correr / como mi t ). There is some development but there is a lot of repetition with similar information provided about the student, all five family members and her best friend. The expression of points of view does not demonstrate a 'sound ability' (mi interesa and frequent gerunds after both this structure and gustar) and, while opinions are often provided, quite a lot remain unexplained. The response fits neatly into the Good band.

11 marks

Range of Language

Given the fairly straightforward nature of the response, we may not at first think that the equivalent band is appropriate under Range of Language. There is, however, quite a good range of vocabulary and structures (me llevo muy bien con / ambos tenemos ciertas cosas en comun / sin embargo / adem s / de vez en cuando / me veo como una persona simp tico / cuando me da la gana). More complex sentences are not frequent, however, and so the lower of the two marks is awarded.

7 marks

Accuracy

There are some errors with verb formations (gerunds after opinions, tengo for tiene in paragraph 3, me salgo, me estudio) but the response is generally accurate.

Student 2 Task 1

My life as an immigrant

Task Planning Form – not submitted

Content

The student conveys very little that is relevant to the task. There is no real structure. Allowing for confusion between ser and estar, we gain some impression that life in England is horrible; he is in debt; he is in a third floor flat in Barcelona; he is a gardener; his life is good(?). Other attempts to convey information fail, sometimes due to poor usage of verbs (tan lo cambiado a España / lo poder empezar un nuevo vida) sometimes because of the inclusion of English words (mi camino a España was por barco / i disfrutar it). While it would be unfair to say that the response shows no relevance to the task set, it only conveys enough to merit the lowest of the three marks in the Poor band.

1 mark

Range of Language

Having awarded a mark of 1 for Content, under Range of Language we are obliged to award at least 1 mark (and up to 4) according to the table on page 4 of the Notes for Examiners (see also the bullet points and the table at the end of the Assessment Criteria). There is nothing in the student's response to tempt us to consider any higher than 1 mark.

Accuracy

Again, we are obliged to award at least 1 mark (and up to 2) under Accuracy. There is limited understanding of the most basic structures and communication is regularly impeded.

Student 2 Task 2

A healthy lifestyle

Task Planning Form – not submitted

Content

Again, we quickly ascertain that this is a very limited response with little relevant information conveyed. We get some idea that he has a good diet; fruit is delicious; fish is good and tasty; his favourite flavour is orange; smoking is awful and alcohol is bad and perhaps that lots of people drink alcohol, especially beer. While the inclusion of soy or me in front of infinitives may give some impression of a first person, this does not succeed in conveying further information. The response fits neatly into the Poor band.

2 marks

Range of Language

There is very little understanding of language structure and, while sports and food items may be appropriate to the task, they are often presented in a way that renders them incomprehensible (mi actividiads be criquet / en el manana soy tener cereals).

Accuracy

Frequent errors regularly impede communication and, after me llamo James, es is the only accurate verb form.

Student 3 Task 1

An article about where I live / home life

Task Planning Form – Nothing to affect assessment

Content

It is sometimes the case that different task titles are presented in different places: on the TPF and the Candidate Record Form, the title is 'an article about where I live', on the student's response sheet, it is 'Home life'. In such circumstances, we take as the title that which applies most favourably to the student's response – in this case, 'an article about where I live.' The student provides a detailed response and almost all information is developed, albeit sometimes with lists of nouns. The response is fully relevant. The structure is well organised. There are a number of opinions expressed and these are usually explained, though not always in great detail. Almost all information is conveyed clearly – mi casa ideal sería por el mar and el jardín habría cambios un montón de flores being less so. As such, the response matches the top band criteria exactly, as opposed to 'comfortably fulfils all of the criteria and may even go beyond them' (15 marks) – Notes for Examiners, page 8.

14 marks

Range of Language

We first consult the equivalent, top band. A variety of tenses (i.e. 2 or more) is used successfully – present, imperfect, preterite, conditional, future and subjunctive. There are examples of successful use of more complex sentences (mi casa fue construida hace ciento años / vivo allí desde hace cinco años / lo bueno/malo es que ...). Some of the response, however, uses very straightforward sentence structure (eg paragraph 2). For top band, we would also expect to see less listing of nouns (places in a town, paragraph 4) and less repetition of vocabulary (rooms in paragraphs 1 and 3; furniture in paragraphs 2 and 3). Nevertheless, there is sufficient evidence to award the higher of the two marks in the 7-8 band.

8 marks

Accuracy

Given the Content band, we again consult the top band first. While the response is largely accurate when more straightforward structures are used, errors do occur in more complex sentences and verbs and tense formations are 'usually correct' rather than 'secure'.

An article about my School and Education

Mi instituto se llama [redacted] y está en las afueras de Reading. El instituto es bastante grande y moderno. Tiene muchas aulas. Las aulas son grandes y coloradas. Los profesores son amistosos y los estudiantes tienen once y dieciseis años. Las clases empiezan a las ocho y media y terminan a las tres. Siempre voy al instituto a pie porque vivo cerca.

En mi instituto hay un comedor, la biblioteca y muchos laboratorios. También hay la cancha de baloncesto y la gimnasia, mientras en el pasado había una piscina. Las instalaciones son buenas y en particular la biblioteca porque es silenciosa.

En mi instituto debo llevar uniforme. Mientras en el pasado, no tenía uniforme. Mi uniforme consiste en una camiseta blanca, un jersey negro y amarillo, una falda negra y los zapatos. Los chicos llevan los pantalones negros, los zapatos y un jersey o una chaqueta con una corbata a rayas. No me gusta mi uniforme porque es feo. Sin embargo

Mi uniforme es muy cómodo.

Me gusta mucho el español porque es interesante. Me encanta la religión porque es fácil, pero no me gustan nada las matemáticas porque son difíciles. Se me dan bien las ciencias porque el profesor es muy inteligente y sabe controlar la clase. Me gusta el profesor de español porque es simpático y preparado. Ayer por la mañana tuve una clase de religión que fue muy divertida porque el profesor tiene una pasión por su asignatura.

Lo bueno de mi instituto es los profesores son muy simpáticos y las estudiantes son amables. Lo que más me gusta de mi instituto es los clubs y las asignaturas porque son divertidos y interesantes. Sin embargo, lo malo de mi instituto es no hay una piscina, las aulas son frías en invierno y los servicios son espantosos. Para mejorar mi instituto se podría reciclar. En mi instituto ideal habría una piscina y se podría escuchar música en el clase porque ~~es~~ es ~~más~~ más divertido.

En el próximo año me gustaría continuar mis estudios y ~~estudiar~~

estudiar por ~~los~~ los exámenes de bachillerato. En particular me gustaría continuar el inglés, el español y la religión porque es interesante y ofrecen más oportunidades de trabajo. Después de la universidad, cuando termine mis estudios, me gustaría viajar por el mundo porque es muy emocionante. Luego, buscar un empleo como en escritora.

Student 3 Task 2

An article about my school and education

Task Planning Form – ofrecen, as a conjugated verb, will be ignored in any sentence/clause in which it appears.

Content

The response is fully relevant: the title allows for both a description of school/life at school, as well as education in general, hence the final paragraph on future educational plans. It has a very well organised structure. The response is detailed; almost all information is developed, sometimes allowing the student to employ other tenses (mientras en el pasado había una piscina). Opinions are frequently expressed and invariably explained. The student almost always conveys information clearly, though it is lost occasionally, eg - lo que más mi instituto es los clubs. This response fulfils the top band criteria neatly.

Range of Language

While it is true that some of the vocabulary and structures are straightforward, repetition and listing is generally avoided and there are examples of more sophisticated vocabulary and structures (los servicios son espantosos / los exámenes de bachillerato / se me dan bien las ciencias / para + infinitive / saber + infinitive / se podría + infinitive / cuando termine mis estudios...). These more complex structures are handled with confidence and verb tenses (present, imperfect, preterite, conditional and subjunctive) are all used successfully.

9 marks

Accuracy

The response is largely accurate. There are few errors, even in attempts at more complex sentences. If we accept that buscar is dependent upon the me gustaría of the previous sentence, there are no verbal errors in the entire piece.

Holidays e-mail

Task Planning Form – not submitted

Content

This is another case when different titles appear in different places; the Candidate Record Form title is 'holidays e-mail'. As such, all information is relevant. There is a general lack of clarity in the first paragraph with two different holidays mentioned, with fue used for fui, fue used for fueron and a perezado family, but information is conveyed more clearly elsewhere. Opinions are frequent and they are sometimes explained – in fact, opinions take up a lot of the response. There is evidence of some ideas being developed, particularly in paragraph 4. We are clearly considering the Sufficient band and, with quite a lot of information clearly communicated, the piece fits the band neatly.

8 marks

Range of Language

We first consult the 5-6 band. The student generally uses basic vocabulary and structures and there is some repetition (Notes for Examiners, page 9). We can just about justify 'some variety' when we consider weather expressions, finalmente, tambien, en mi opinion and me gustaría + infinitive. While sentences tend to be short, there are some attempts at longer sentences using y, con and porque and these are sometimes successful (paragraph 4). It is clearly not a strong performance in this band and so 5 marks are awarded.

Accuracy

Again, we find ourselves considering two possible bands: 3 marks or 2 marks. Errors are frequent but, after the first paragraph, they rarely 'impede communication'. And it would be a little too harsh to say that verb forms are 'rarely accurate'. They are sometimes unsuccessful but the intended meaning is generally clear. Even if 'more accurate than inaccurate' may be a little generous, the rest of the criteria apply and if ever we find ourselves genuinely between two possible marks, we should err on the side of the student.

Student 4 Task 2

Application for a holiday job in Spain

Task Planning Form – not submitted

Content

The response is fully relevant and it has a well organised structure. Opinions are expressed and are occasionally explained in some detail. We would not consider the top band as the student does not display a 'sound ability to convey information clearly'. A lot is expressed clearly but clarity is lost in such examples as: tengo un tiempo libre en una oficina / lo encuentra el reto / el esfuerzo que puerto / sería desarrollo muchas qualidades / sin empargo lograr este primero ir a un universidad. Opinions are expressed and some are explained. The piece fits neatly into the Good band.

11 marks

Range of Language

There is a good variety of vocabulary and structure (las maquetas de construcciones / sinceramente odio las ent(r)añas / para + infinitive / me trata como un perro / deber + infinitive). More complex sentences, however, are sometimes unsuccessful and there is a general lack of precision. A range of tenses is used (present, preterite, imperfect, conditional and future) but they are sometimes unsuccessful: first and third persons are sometimes confused and both attempts at a perfect tense are unsuccessful.

7 marks

Accuracy

The piece is more accurate than inaccurate; there are fairly frequent slips with spelling and errors are not confined to more complex sentences but some complex sentences are accurate. Verbs and tense formations are sometimes unsuccessful: encuentra for encuentro / puerto for he puesto / sería desarrollo for desarrollé / and fue for fui.
