EXAMPLE RESPONSES

Translation from Spanish into English

This resource comprises example answers with senior examiner commentaries and mark schemes for GCSE Spanish (8658) Paper 3 Reading.

Examples of student work for each translation exercise (at both Foundation and Higher tier), along with the relevant assessment materials, are contained in this resource and should be used in conjunction with the relevant sample Paper 3 Reading mark scheme.

Also included is a commentary for each piece of work, with the marks awarded. The resource aims to show how the mark scheme is applied for this particular exercise on the Reading papers. Whilst every attempt has been made to show a range of student responses, they are not intended to be viewed as 'model' answers and the marking has not been subject to the usual standardisation process.

Response

Normally I listen to pop music on my i-pod. But my friend likes to use (~~her~~) his phone. Yesterday he lost his phone in the shopping centre. They are going to send an email tomorrow, to see if they've found it.

Commentary

Response	Comments
Normally I listen to	1 mark
pop music on my i-pod	1 mark
But my friend likes	1 mark
to use ( her ) his phone.	1 mark – phone is acceptable as a translation for móvil , but her phone would have lost the student the mark as the Spanish amigo makes it clear that the friend is male.
Yesterday he lost	1 mark
his phone in the shopping centre.	1 mark
They are going to send	1 mark – the le is implied
an email tomorrow,	1 mark
to see if they've found it.	0 marks – the translation almost captures the sense of the original but to see has been introduced unnecessarily and the tense of encontrar has been mistranslated

Your friend, who has bought a comic in Spain, has asked you to translate the captions in one of the comic strips. Translate them into English.

—¿Qué estás haciendo con tu móvil? —preguntó el profesor, furioso—. No puedes usarlo en clase.

—Quiero ver el resultado del partido. Si mi equipo favorito gana esta tarde, será el mejor de la liga.

—Por favor, ¡no seas tan tonto! ¿Qué dirían tus padres, si supieran cómo te comportas aquí?

Higher student one

Response

What do you do with your mobile phone? It makes the teacher furious. You can't use it in class

I want to watch the match results. If my favourite team wins this afternoon, they would be the best in the league.

Please, don't be crazy! What would your parents think if they are superior

Commentary

Response	Comments
What do you do with your mobile phone?	0 marks – the present continuous tense is mistranslated and this alters the meaning
It makes the teacher furious.	0 marks – preguntó is mistranslated
You can't use it in class	1 mark
I want to watch the match results.	1 mark – ver might be better translated as to see and resultado is translated as results in the plural but there is no loss of meaning
If my favourite team wins this afternoon,	1 mark
they would be the best in the league.	1 mark – the future será is rendered by a conditional but, given the correct translation of the first half of the sentence, the message is clearly communicated
Please, don't be crazy!	0 marks – tan is not translated
What would your parents think	0 marks – dirían is mistranslated as think
if they are superior	0 marks – totally incorrect /wrong tense/part of the sentence omitted

Response

“What are you doing on your phone” said the teacher furiously. “You can’t use it in class.”

“I want to see the results of the game. If my favourite team win this afternoon, they will be best in the league.”

“Please, don’t be so stupid! What would your parents say if the head teacher came in here?”

Commentary

Response	Comments
“What are you doing on your phone”	1 mark – the student has written on rather than with but the meaning is not changed. Phone is acceptable as a translation for móvil said the teacher furiously.	0 marks – preguntó is mistranslated as said
“You can’t use it in class.”	1 mark
“I want to see the results of the game.	1 mark – again, the translation of resultado as results does not affect communication
If my favourite team win this afternoon,	1 mark – the verb is plural rather than singular but the meaning is clear
they will be best in the league.”	1 mark
“Please, don’t be so stupid!	1 mark
What would your parents say	1 mark
if the head teacher came in here?”	0 marks – complete mistranslation
