Write an essay on one of the following. You must base your answer on the Topic Option and/or Literary Test Options you have studied in class. References to other subjects or literary works are permissible but should not form the main body of your answer.

1. “Back to the Future.” Can Future/Change always be equated with progress? Refer to two or three examples in detail.
 2. “A problem shared is a problem halved.” In what ways can this be related to a global issue you have studied?
 3. English has been described as “a language without frontiers”. Discuss what you think this means and to what extent it is true.
 4. Comment on the techniques that advertisers use to attract their audience.
 5. What do you understand by the phrase “Equality of Opportunity” and how do you think it can be best achieved in a society that you have studied?
 6. Choose a significant moment from two works of literature and explain what gives them their dramatic or powerful impact.
 7. According to the literary texts you have studied, what are the qualities of a good ruler or leader?
 8. Show how writers can use the form and/or structure of a text to emphasize the meaning or content.
 9. Comment on the concept of “Girl Power” or women taking control, in the literary texts and/or topic options you have studied.
 10. What means have been used to try to resolve conflict in either the literary texts and/or topic options you have studied? How effective have they been?
