Write at least 250 words on ONE of the following.

1. You feel strongly that animals are being treated badly in your country. Write a letter to your local newspaper explaining the harm caused to animals by humans who don't realize – or don't care – what they are doing.
  2. You will be taking part in a school debate. The motion of this debate is the following: Young people are interested only in films that are violent and contain special effects. Write the text of your speech either for or against this motion.
  3. Last year only a few students at your school went on school trips. Write an article for the school newspaper with the aim of promoting the educational value of such activities.
  4. In your school you would like to start a project to help your country's disadvantaged young people. Write a one page leaflet outlining your aims, as well as details of the activities you would like to organize. This leaflet will be distributed to staff and students.
  5. You have been asked by a local magazine to review a new restaurant. Your review should focus on the appeal of this restaurant to young people. Include aspects such as the location, the range of dishes, the ambience and the quality of the service. Write your review.
  6. In an e-mail to a new friend whom you met last summer, you mention some of the activities in which you have been involved recently. You are particularly enthusiastic about a new sport or hobby. In this correspondence you wish to provide information, as well as to convey your enthusiasm, about this sport or hobby. Write your e-mail.
