Paper 1 Observational Study

15 March–30 April 2005

May be opened and given to candidates upon receipt.

10 hours maximum

READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS FIRST

Write your name, Centre number, candidate number and question number clearly on the top right-hand corner of the front of each sheet of paper.

Answer one question.

Choose one of the subjects overleaf. In some cases, candidates may not be able to represent some of the subjects listed from direct observation during the examination itself, in particular Interiors and Exteriors. In these cases, it is permissible to produce supporting studies from direct observation and to produce the final examination piece using the supporting studies as a reference point.

In addition to the examination piece, up to three sheets of supporting work should be submitted. These should be the sheets of preparatory work undertaken after receipt of this paper.

All sheets must be correctly labelled and securely fastened at the top left-hand corner.

This document consists of 2 printed pages.

Candidates should make a study or studies from direct observation from one of the following. They may consult their Art Teacher if they wish. Studies may be of either the whole or part of the subject. Small specimens or details may be enlarged.

1 Still Life Group

Either (a) Arrange a group which is made up of roller skates or ice skates or football boots together with cleaning materials. A background must be included.

Or (b) A group which includes a number of fruits with a decorative jug placed on a table covered with a plain cloth. This should be seen against a curtain.

2 Natural and Man Made Objects

Make a study or studies from one of the following:

Either (a) A stapler or staple gun and a box of staples on it's side with some strips of staples spilling out.

Or (b) Two different flower heads such as roses, poppies, dahlias or chrysanthemums.

Or (c) Fish in a fish bowl or fish tank.

3 The Human Figure

Either (a) A seated model is leaning forward with hands resting on an upright walking stick, cricket bat or umbrella. The whole figure should be drawn or painted.

Or (b) Two figures may be posed together. One as described in Q3(a) and the other seated nearby as though engaged in conversation.

Or (c) The portrait of a person who is seated and is looking up from an open book which is lying on the lap. One hand is holding the book and the other is pointing to a page. The work should include the head, upper body and hands.

Candidates may carry out their final examination work in the studio with the aid of their preliminary sketches and/or own photographs for the following question.

4 Interiors and Exteriors

Either (a) A garden scene.

Or (b) A view which includes steps or stairways. This may be inside a building or outside.
