Section A

Answer all questions in this section.

Section B

Answer one question.

Section C

Answer one question.

You are advised to spend between 15 and 30 minutes reading the questions and the extract and making notes before you begin to answer the questions.

You are advised to divide your time equally between the three sections.

The questions in this paper are based on the text and the stimuli that you have worked on. A copy of the text is provided with this Question Paper.

At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 3 printed pages and 1 blank page.

Section A

Answer all questions in this section.

Questions 1–5 are based on the extract from The Winslow Boy by Terence Rattigan that you have studied.

- 1 Describe the costume you would suggest for the character of DICKIE, and give a reason for your suggestion. [2]
- 2 Identify three things that you would want to establish about the relationship between ARTHUR WINSLOW and DICKIE in their first encounter (line 86 'I'm on Mother's side.' to line 178 'The Victoria and Albert Museum.'). [3]
- 3 Suggest two aspects of the character of VIOLET that you would want to bring out between the opening of the extract and line 55 ('Well, well – I must be getting on –'). Give a reason for each aspect, quoting specific lines from the extract. [4]
- 4 Give two examples from the extract of how characters might make use of the furniture and/or props in the drawing-room for dramatic effect. [4]
- 5 As an actor, discuss how you would portray ARTHUR WINSLOW's support for RONNIE in the closing dialogue of this extract (line 836 'Come in.' to lines 883–884 'Replace receiver? Certainly.'). [5]

Questions 6–8 are based on the pieces of drama that you have devised from the stimuli.

- 6 Identify two important dramatic moments in your piece based on All the world's a stage I'm going through. What made them effective? [4]
- 7 Discuss how you dramatised the relationship between two characters in your piece based on The hit man. [4]
- 8 What set did you choose for A night on the mountain, and how did you stage the piece? [4]

Section B

Answer one question in this section.

Questions 9–11 are based on the extract from The Winslow Boy by Terence Rattigan that you have studied.

- 9 In designing a set for the extract, how would you use the performance space for maximum effect? [25]
- 10 'I believe the best plays are about people, and not about things' (Terence Rattigan). How would you seek to make the most of the human dimension of the drama if you were directing a performance of the extract? [25]
- 11 As an actor, what character traits would you bring out in playing the role of CATHERINE WINSLOW? [25]

Section C

Answer one question in this section.

Questions 12–14 are based on the pieces of drama that you have devised from the stimuli.

- 12 Briefly summarise your piece based on All the world's a stage I'm going through, and discuss how you dramatised it. [25]
- 13 What performance space did you use for your piece based on The hit man, and how successful was it? [25]
- 14 What atmosphere did you set out to create in your piece based on A night on the mountain, and what did you want the audience to experience? How successful were you in achieving your aims? [25]
