IGCSE English Language 4355 Paper 04

Principal Moderator's Report

Very few centres submitted written coursework for the November series of examinations. There is consequently little to add to the summer report. Standards of attainment were on a par with those of previous years. Centre assessment remains sound, if inclined to the generous.

In addition to the requested sample, teacher-examiners are reminded that they must also send to the external moderator the folders of the candidates, who are given the lowest and highest marks for coursework in their centres. A completed Coursework Authentication Form for each candidate in the sample should also be included.
