Section B (Depth Studies)

Answer any one question.

At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 18 printed pages and 2 blank pages.

SECTION A: CORE CONTENT

Answer any two questions from this Section.

- 1 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

By 1848 the Austro-Hungarian Empire included many different races and many different languages. Effective government would have proved difficult for an efficient ruler, like Napoleon. The leaders of Austro-Hungary had no such talent for government.

From a British school textbook, published in 1985.

- (a) Describe the influence of nationalism in the nineteenth century. [5]
- (b) Why did the Austro-Hungarian Empire almost collapse during 1848–49? [7]
- (c) ‘The revolutions of 1848 failed because the revolutionaries were not clear about their aims.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 2 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

During the 1850s Cavour considered unification of the entire peninsula neither possible nor desirable. Garibaldi argued that the first aim must be a single Italy. To achieve his vision he wanted to incorporate the existing states, including Piedmont, Sardinia and Lombardy. To achieve his vision Garibaldi was prepared to fight anywhere, which he did.

From a British history textbook, published in 1982.

- (a) Describe the events of 1848–49 in Rome. [5]
- (b) Why did Cavour meet Napoleon III at Plombières in 1858? [7]
- (c) How important was Garibaldi’s contribution to the unification of Italy? Explain your answer. [8]

3 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

With the restoration of power in the Meiji Emperor, the power of the Shoguns came to an end. They had controlled the country since 1600. Japan then embarked on an ambitious programme of social, economic and constitutional reform which transformed it.

From a British school history textbook, published in 1985.

- (a) What benefits were gained by the United States following Perry's second mission? [5]
- (b) Explain what was 'unequal' about the 'Treaties with Five Nations' signed by Japan in the mid-nineteenth century. [7]
- (c) How important was the Meiji Emperor in the transformation of Japan between 1868 and 1890? Explain your answer. [8]

4 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The dispatch of the 'Panther' revealed German policy. They did not really want trading rights in Morocco or compensation from the French in Central Africa. They simply wanted everyone to go on being frightened of them.

A British historian writing in 1955 about the Agadir crisis of 1911.

- (a) Describe the colonial rivalry which existed among the Great Powers by 1900. [5]
- (b) Why was the tension between the Great Powers increased by events in Morocco in 1911? [7]
- (c) 'Events in Bosnia in 1908 were more significant than the Balkan Wars of 1912–13 in bringing war closer.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

5 Study the cartoon, and then answer the questions which follow.

A German cartoon published in 1919. It was called 'Clemenceau the Vampire' and shows the French Prime Minister sucking the blood from Germany.

- (a) What were Germany's main territorial losses under the Treaty of Versailles? [5]
- (b) Why was Clemenceau dissatisfied with the Treaty of Versailles? [7]
- (c) 'The Germans had genuine grounds for complaint about the Treaty of Versailles.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 6 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The League is a robber's den to safeguard the unjust spoils of Versailles.

Lenin's view of the League of Nations.

- (a) What methods were available to the League of Nations to settle disputes between countries? [5]
- (b) Why did some major powers not join the League of Nations? [7]
- (c) 'The lack of an army was the main reason for the League's failure in Manchuria.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 7 Study the cartoon, and then answer the questions which follow.

A British cartoon published in 1969. It is commenting on President Nixon's Vietnam policy.

- (a) What was the 'Gulf of Tonkin' incident? [5]
- (b) Explain the methods used by President Nixon in an attempt to gain 'peace with honour' in Vietnam. [7]
- (c) 'America withdrew from Vietnam because of military failure.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 8 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

West Berlin has many roles. It is more than a showcase of liberty, an island of freedom in a Communist sea. It is more a link with the free world, a beacon of hope behind the Iron Curtain, an escape hatch for refugees. We cannot and will not permit the Communists to drive us out of Berlin.

Kennedy speaking in 1960 before he became President of the USA.

- (a) What was the 'Prague Spring'? [5]
- (b) Why did Berlin remain a focus of Cold War tensions during the 1960s? [7]
- (c) How significant was the part played by Solidarity in the loss of Soviet control in Eastern Europe? Explain your answer. [8]

SECTION B: DEPTH STUDIES

Answer any one question from this Section.

DEPTH STUDY A: GERMANY, 1918–45

- (b) Why did events from 1930 to 1932 result in Hitler becoming Chancellor? [7]
- (c) 'The most important reason for Hitler being able to strengthen his control of Germany between 1933 and 1934 was the Reichstag Fire.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

10 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Our state is an educational state. We begin with the child when he is three years old. As soon as he begins to think, he is made to carry a little flag. Then follows school, the Hitler Youth, the storm troopers and military training. We don't let him go. When all that is done, next comes the Labour Front, which takes possession of him again, and does not let him go until he dies, even if he does not like it.

Dr. Robert Ley, speaking about the role of the State. Ley was the Chief of the Labour Front and was in charge of making 'good citizens' out of the German people.

- (a) How did the Nazis use education to indoctrinate young people? [5]
- (b) Why did the Nazis encourage young people to join the Hitler Youth? [7]
