

Notice for students and centres
January 2013
Level 3 Employment Law examination

CILEx has identified an error in Scenario 1, Question 1(b) of the Level 3 Employment Law examination which was taken by students on Wednesday 16 January 2013.

1(b) Where would Mick issue his claim and what is the time limit for him to issue a claim?

(2 marks)

The question incorrectly referred to Mick. The question should have referred to Mike.

1(b) Where would Mike issue his claim and what is the time limit for him to issue a claim?

(2 marks)

The Chief Examiner and the assessor team are aware of this error. To ensure that no student is disadvantaged, action is being taken within the CILEx post-examination procedures to address the difficulties students encountered.

CILEx would like to apologise to students for this error and would like to reassure all students who took this examination that the necessary action is being taken to ensure the results students achieve are a fair reflection of their performance.
