

STAGE 1 PROJECT

AUGUST 2003

Marketing in the Voluntary Sector

Introduction

There is little doubt that voluntary sector organisations are making a direct and substantial contribution to contemporary Irish life, to the extent that this sector as a whole contributes up to 4 % of Gross Domestic Product (Basini & Buckley, 1997). As Lacey (1998:20) reports, 'many essential services are provided by voluntary organisations and the role of the sector in delivering social services, combating poverty and in community development is growing'. The 'Voluntary Sector' refers to organisations which are separate from State and private sector enterprises. This encompassing term is intended to include all organisations sometimes referred to as: Non-Profit, Not-For-Profit, Independent, Voluntary or Charities.

The Project

- Select a voluntary organisation with which you are familiar. Outline any assumptions you have made regarding your selection.

- Provide a summary of the background of the organisation and the core business it is engaged in. The objective of this summary is to give the examiner a clear understanding of the chosen company. 15%

- Paying particular attention to the marketing activities of the organisation you have chosen, describe in detail the key marketing strategies. 35%

- Based firmly on your secondary research, make recommendations to other voluntary sector organisations within the same core business 35%

- Your project must be presented in a professional manner, therefore 15% of total marks are awarded for:
 - Appropriate use of citations & bibliography 6%
 - Effective presentation / structure 6%
 - Accurate syntax, grammar and spelling 3%

Additional Briefing Notes

- A word count MUST be included as part of your 'Contents Page'.
- Candidates are NOT to submit their projects in individual page plastic covers.

STATEMENT
STAGE 1 PROJECT
AUGUST 2003

I hereby certify that:

- I have read the rules.
- This project is my own work prepared as part of my marketing examination.
- I have fully acknowledged all my sources.
- I have not made this project available to another student.

PLEASE READ THESE RULES CAREFULLY

1. This project is an exercise in investigative study. Because it is not being prepared under examination conditions, style and presentation will be taken into account as well as content.
2. The project must be typed on A4 paper. It should be presented in a folder or loose binder. Your name, student registration number and your project title must appear on the title page. The pages should be numbered and there should be a Table of Contents.
3. A one-page abstract forms part of the completed project. This abstract should be a brief description of the objective to be achieved by the project, the methods used and the conclusions reached.
4. We would envisage that you would not be able to do justice to the topic in less than 3,000 words. On the other hand you should not exceed 5,000 words.
5. You must acknowledge all your sources; not to do so is plagiarism. Acknowledgement involves naming your source (report, textbook, website) in brackets at the relevant point in the text, and appending a bibliography at the end of your text. This should be in alphabetical order and should include the author's name, the title, the publisher and the city and date of publication. Web references should be as detailed as possible, not just the home page. The quality of your bibliography is an important element in the overall assessment of your project.
6. This project will be assessed and marked like the other subjects in Stage 1. You will not have passed Stage 1 until you have passed the project.
7. The project is due by SEPTEMBER 1, 2003. As time management is a major feature of the discipline of report writing, projects submitted after the due date will not be accepted. Students should, therefore, start work on the project immediately as excuses relating to mishaps (poor health, computer failure, typing) in the final week will not be accepted.
8. A two-part project form is enclosed with this notice. Please complete BOTH parts and staple on the outside of front cover. One part of the form will be returned to you as acknowledgement of receipt.
9. Since the project is treated as an examination subject, The Marketing Institute staff cannot assist you with the interpretation of the brief or sources of information.
10. The same sanction applies to copying and to plagiarism: all subjects in the sitting are deemed to have been failed and the candidate may not register as a student with the Institute thereafter. Please sign the statement overleaf and incorporate it into your project after the bibliography.
