About

The Royal Shakespeare Company (also known as the RSC) is based in Stratford-upon-Avon. We perform the works of Shakespeare, his contemporaries and new playwrights.

Company Overview

In November 2010, the RSC re-opened its new theatres following a 4-year transformation project.

The new Royal Shakespeare Theatre and Swan Theatre include a thrust stage configuration, bringing the actors and audience closer together. The new building also includes exhibition spaces, a viewing Tower, the Rooftop Restaurant and Bar and Theatre Tours.
