Question C2: My Community

HAYPARK RESIDENTS IN MASSIVE PROTEST DEMONSTRATION

Hundreds of people packed a meeting in Haypark last week to vent their anger at the lack of facilities in the area.

The community hall was over-flowing as more than 600 locals demanded action. Furious residents complained that developers had promised a park and shops but had not delivered even though it was part of the original planning permission.

"This is just not fair," complained an angry mother of four whose children have no place safe to play football or to cycle.

Developer Mr. Seamus Ryan was due to meet the local people last night but due to unforeseen circumstances he was unable to attend.

Local Councillor John Gray promised the meeting that he would do all in his power to make sure that the locals got what they were promised and believed that these amenities should have been in place before any house was built.

Chairman of the Residents Association Paul Wilson said that the battle would go on and thanked everyone for showing up.
