- (b) All questions carry equal marks. (50)
- (c) Sketches and diagrams must be used where possible to illustrate your points.
- (d) Refer where necessary to the illustrations on the accompanying sheet.

SECTION I - Art in Ireland

1. Describe and discuss the prehistoric gold artefacts illustrated on the accompanying sheet in relation to form, function, decoration and the metalworking techniques used to produce them:
(a) gold bulla from The Bog of Alien, Co. Kildare (b)
gold gorget from Borrisnoe, Co. Tipperary
(c) gold dress fastener from Clones, Co. Monaghan.
2. In terms of size, proportion, decoration and figurative content how does the North Cross of Ahenny, County Tipperary differ from the Cross of the Scriptures at Clonmacnoise, County Offaly.
Both crosses are illustrated on the accompanying sheet.
3. Describe and discuss an abbey, church or cathedral from the Irish Gothic period and compare it with a church from the Irish Romanesque period. Refer to plan, style, architectural features and decoration in your answer.
4. Although William Chambers (1726 - 1796) never visited Ireland he designed a gem of Irish Georgian architecture - The Casino, at Marino. Describe and discuss the function, design, architectural features and decoration of the Casino and compare it with another Georgian building of your choice.
5. Roderic O'Connor (1860-1940) and William Orpen (1878-1931) were contemporaries, but they painted in very different styles.
Discuss this statement with detailed reference to one major work by each artist.
6. Select one of the following painters/sculptors/designers/architects: Patrick Scott, Imogen Stuart, Tony O'Malley, John Behan, Sean Scully, Ciaran Lennon, Michael Scott, Eileen Gray, Philip Treacy. Describe and discuss two specific examples of work by your chosen painter/sculptor/designer/architect. You should refer to subject matter, media, style and Imagery.

SECTION 11 - European Art (1000 AD - Present)

7. Compare and contrast the major characteristics of Romanesque and Gothic architecture. Refer in detail to one Romanesque church and one Gothic cathedral.
8. What were the main characteristics and functions of medieval stained glass? In your answer include reference to design, colour and to the manufacturing techniques of a single window or group of windows.
9. With reference to the altarpiece, The Annunciation by Simone Martini (1284-1344), illustrated on the accompanying sheet, describe and discuss the characteristics and development of the International Gothic style of painting.
10. Select two sculptures by Michelangelo. Describe and discuss these in relation to the overall development of his style, their subject matter and their sculptural qualities.
11. The paintings of Sandro Botticelli (1455-1510) could be described as sheer visual poetry and grace. Discuss this statement with reference to La Primavera illustrated on the accompanying sheet and to one other work by Botticelli.
12. It was Peter Paul Rubens' (1577-1640) gift for arranging large colourful compositions and filling them with drama and emotion that makes his art unforgettable. Discuss this statement with reference to Descent from the Cross, illustrated on the accompanying sheet and to one other work by Rubens.
13. Choose a work that fits into one of the following categories:
- (a) a painting or graphic work featuring water
