

Copyright ownership - 2014 national curriculum tests

With the exception of those texts and graphics listed below, the copyright in all material in the 2014 National Curriculum tests is owned by the Department for Education and may be re-used subject to the terms of the Open Government Licence.

Schools and other educational establishments, as defined in the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988 (CDPA), may re-use the test materials in their entirety for educational purposes. However, if not expressly permitted under the CDPA, any other third party seeking to re-use the test materials should either replace the sections listed below or seek permission from the copyright owners, as the Department for Education is not permitted to license the re-use of the listed material.
