Presents

Jamie decides to buy some mathematical puzzles for his friends. He decides to order them from the company advertised below.

Math-A-Magician Numeracy Skills

Is it magic or maths? A magician's hat, 36 rabbits and loads of fun basic maths games to play with this hands-on set! The games cover number and operations, basic algebraic thinking, geometry, measurement, data analysis and probability. Plenty of activities and great fun!

- Graded activity for all abilities
- Improves confidence and concentration

Order code: LRMAM
Price: £19.99

Math Dice Numeracy Skills

A fast fun game of mental maths! Roll the two, 12-sided 'target dice' and multiply their totals together to reach your target number. Then roll the three regular dice and use the numbers on the faces in any maths equation to get as near as possible to the target number. Storage bag included.

- Improves confidence and concentration

Order code: BAMDC
Price: £6.99

Mathematical Curiosities Numeracy Skills

The 'Addition Dice' teach you tricks that enable you to add up five, randomly chosen three-digit numbers in seconds. The 'Magic Calculator' uses strips of numbers to teach you maths tricks that will turn you into an apparent human computer! Plus the 'Magic Number' cards and the 'Think Of A Number' cards will allow you to try out number tricks on friends. The whole idea is to improve children's love of numbers and maths and the set is great fun!

- Improves confidence and concentration

Order code: TBNTC
Price: £5.99

Fraction Pie Puzzles Numeracy Skills

Select a card, place the indicated pieces, and then fill in the circles with the remaining pieces. Will one-third solve the puzzle? What about 2 one-sixths? This is a hands-on way to reinforce important fraction concepts. Plus, the self-correcting puzzles are perfect as a small group activity. It's an entertaining way for children to challenge their brains and understand fractions. Includes 65 foam fraction pieces and 50 graded puzzle cards.

- Graded activity for all abilities
- Improves confidence and concentration

Order code: LRFPP
Price: £22.99
