[30]

VRAAG 3
MEYERHOLD

Meyerhold is onder baie verdagte omstandighede, gearresteer, gemartel en vermoor, omdat sy kuns as te radikaal in die nuwe Rusland onder Stalin se bewind beskou is. Sosialistiese Realisme is as die enigste aanneemlike kunsvorm beskou. Die volgende beginsels was deel daarvan:

- Die bevordering van die saak van die sosialistiese gemeenskap
  - Die kunstenaar in diens van die staat
  - Volledige realisme in 'staging'
  - Dramas moet handel oor die lewens van gewone mense.
- 3.1 Meyerhold het as akteur in Stanislavsky se teatergeselskap begin en het daarom realisme baie goed verstaan. Hy het deur die jare egter wegbeweeg van realisme. Bespreek hierdie beweging volledig, verwys na sy vroeëre produksies en sy eksperimentering met "tableaux vivants", "commedia dell arte" en ander nie-realistiese style. (8)
- 3.2 Bespreek hoe Meyerhold se kunsskeppings die beginsels van Sosialistiese Realisme weerspreek het deur te verwys na aspekte van sy werk soos biomechanics, konstruktivisme en stilisme. (15)
- 3.3 Meyerhold was wel verantwoordelik vir Propaganda Teater. Beskryf hierdie vorm kortliks en verduidelik dan wat jy dink die reaksie van die kommunistiese owerhede hierop sou wees. (7)

QUESTION 2
WAGNER AND REINHARDT

2.1 Although Wagner focused on the operatic form, his ideas were to have a huge influence on all forms of modern performance. Discuss this influence in terms of TWO of the following:

- Staging
- The role of the director
- Theatre architecture

(15)

2.2 Reinhardt also had a huge influence on twentieth century theatrical performance. Discuss this influence in terms of TWO of the following:

- The theatre complex
- The role of the director
- Eclecticism

(15)

QUESTION 3
MEYERHOLD

Meyerhold was arrested, tortured and killed under mysterious circumstances, because his art was seen as being too radical in the new Russia under Stalin. Socialist Realism was considered the only acceptable form of art. The following were some of its principles:

- To promote the cause of the socialist society
- The artist as the servant of the state
- Complete realism in staging
- Plays should be about the lives of ordinary people

3.1 Meyerhold started out as an actor in Stanislavsky's company and as a result would have understood realism very well. However, over the years he moved away from realism. Describe this move in some detail, referring to his early productions and his experimentation with tableaux vivants, commedia dell'arte and other non-realistic styles.

(8)

3.2 Discuss how Meyerhold's artistic innovations would have contradicted the principles of Socialist Realism by referring in detail to such aspects of his work as biomechanics, constructivism and stylisation.

(15)

3.3 Meyerhold was nevertheless responsible for Theatre of Propaganda. Briefly describe this form and then consider what you believe the reaction of the communist authorities would have been to it.

Tradisioneel het vroue aangetrek om te verlei en mans vir status.

Bogenoemde stelling kan as korrek beskou word vir die Viktoriaanse tydperk, waarin vroue alles gedoen het om hul vroulikheid en mans alles gedoen het om hulle status en formaliteit te beklemtoon. Fokus op die kostuum van Viktoriaanse mans, of Viktoriaanse vroue en beskryf daardie eienskappe wat spesifiek die bostaande kenmerke ondersteun. [20]

VRAAG 7

Die konsep van wat as verleidelik of 'sexy' beskou word, verskil van generasie tot generasie. Verskillende dele van die liggaam word in verskillende tydperke as besonder aantreklik beskou en klere word gebruik om die aandag op daardie dele te vestig deur dit te beklemtoon, te versteek of te ontbloot.
