

Global assessment of essays

The essays will be assessed holistically (globally). This approach requires the educator to score the overall product as a whole, without scoring the component parts separately. This approach encourages the learner to offer an individual opinion through using selected factual evidence to support an argument. The learner will not be required to simply regurgitate "facts" in order to achieve a high mark. It will also discourage learners to prepare "model" answers and reproduce them without taking into account the specific requirements of the question. Holistic essay marking credits learners' opinions. Holistic assessment, unlike content based marking, does not penalise language inadequacies as the emphasis is on the following:

- the construction of argument;
- the appropriate selection of factual evidence to support such argument; and
- the learner's interpretation of the question.

Assessment procedures of an essay

1. Keep the synopsis in mind when assessing the essay.
2. During the first reading of the essay ticks need to be awarded for a relevant introduction (indicated by a bullet in marking guideline/ memorandum), each of the main points/ aspects that is properly contextualised (also indicated by bullets in marking guideline/ memorandum) and a relevant conclusion (indicated by a bullet in marking guideline/ memorandum) e.g. in an answer where there are 5 main points there will be 7 ticks.
3. The following additional symbols can also be used:

- introduction, main aspects and conclusion not properly

contextualised

- wrong statement

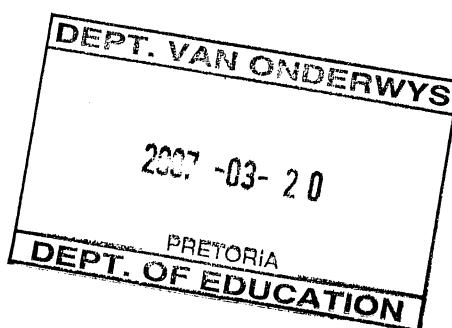

- irrelevant statement

- repetition

The matrix

The criteria according to which the essay will be assessed are organised within a matrix and the matrix will be used to allocate a symbol to an essay. Both the content and presentation axes are divided into eight competency levels, each with criteria that will be used to assess an essay.

SECTION A: ESSAY QUESTIONS

- MARKERS MUST BE AWARE THAT THE CONTENT OF THE ANSWER WILL BE GUIDED BY THE TEXTBOOKS IN USE AT THE PARTICULAR CENTRE
- CANDIDATES MAY HAVE ANY OTHER RELEVANT INTRODUCTION AND OR CONCLUSION THAN THOSE INCLUDED IN A SPECIFIC ESSAY MARKING GUIDELINES
- IN ASSESSING THE OPEN ENDED SOURCE-BASED QUESTIONS CANDIDATES SHOULD BE GIVEN CREDIT FOR ANY OTHER RELEVANT RESPONSE

QUESTION 1: AFRICA IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURYQUESTION 1A

National independence would have remained a distant dream for the colonies in Africa had it not been for the awakening of African Nationalism after the Second World War.

Do you agree with this statement? Justify your argument.

SYNOPSIS

The candidate could either agree or disagree with the statement. However the answer needs to make the point that African independence came about because of a combination of factors - it was not simply 'won' by the demands of African nationalists within Africa. On the other hand independence was not simply 'given' by the colonial powers. While the candidate may well choose to credit African Nationalism with being the most important factor, they cannot claim that it was the only factor. The question requires a balanced argument.

NB: The main aspects (bullets) must be used to address the requirements of the question and to develop a relevant line of argument. A mere stating of 'facts' is inadequate.

MAIN ASPECTS

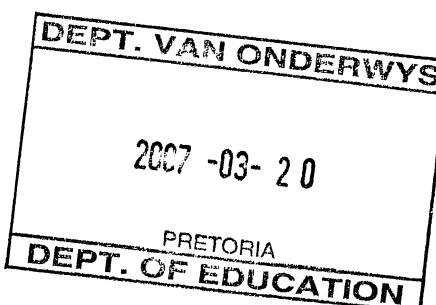

- Introduction – Candidates need to comment on the validity of the statement. They must then outline their position in regard to decolonisation.
Any other relevant introduction

ELABORATIONAfrican Nationalism:

- Factors leading to a rise in African nationalism included: Experiences during the Second World War; rapid urbanisation after the War; growth within a more radical working class; spread of education combined with growing awareness of 'Western' concepts like freedom and democracy

Other Factors

- Weakening of colonial powers after the Second World War
- New World Order: USA & USSR not supportive of European colonialism.
- United Nations: pressure for universal suffrage (eg: especially newly independent Asian countries' lobby, International Declaration of Human Rights)
 - Conclusion - Must tie up the discussion of all factors by presenting a concluding remark that relates to the original statement on factors influencing decolonisation.
Any other relevant conclusion.

QUESTION 1B

Post-independence challenges experienced by the newly independent African states stem from the legacy of European colonial rule.

Do you agree? Examine the statement critically.

SYNOPSIS

The answer should indicate whether the candidate agrees or disagrees with the statement. Candidates can substantiate their viewpoint by pointing out that Africa's challenges resulted not only from the imposition of foreign European systems but also from the newly independent African states. Reference should be made to factors such as political, economic and social challenges. Candidates can either agree or disagree with the statement but still need to support the line of argument properly.

NB: The main aspects (bullets) must be used to address the requirements of the question and to develop a relevant line of argument. A mere stating of 'facts' is inadequate.

MAIN ASPECT

- Introduction: Candidates should indicate their viewpoint in relation to the statement and develop a relevant line of argument by substantiating it with relevant evidence.
Any other relevant introduction

ELABORATION

- Political challenges (may use any challenges [administrative; ethnic; military; state management; or any other relevant challenges] to support their argument)
- Economic challenges (may use any challenges [agriculture; mining; manufacturing; transport; communication; or any other relevant challenges] to support their argument)
- Social challenges (may use any challenges [education; health; crime; urbanization; or any other relevant challenges] to support their argument)
- Conclusion: This must tie up with the viewpoint taken in the introduction and sustained throughout the answer.
Any other relevant conclusion.

Candidates should use the following bullets to illustrate the extent to which Lenin was successful in making Russia a pure communist state and a great industrial power in the years 1917 to 1924.

They can either follow the format below or they can explain by assessing the extent to which Lenin was successful in making Russia a pure Communist state and a great industrial power.

- Implementation of War Communism (focus should be on whether Russia became a pure communist state)
- Evaluation of War Communism (focus should be on both agriculture and industry and whether Russia became a pure communist state) and how it forced Lenin to introduce the NEP
- Implementation of NEP (focus should be on how agriculture, industry, commerce and trade helped to improve the economy of Russia and whether Russia became a pure communist state)]

LEVEL 4 (L 4)	Complex interpretations often involving more than one source. These questions look at aspects such as bias, reliability, usefulness, the use of organising concepts (similarity and difference; cause and consequence; chronology; change and continuity) to explain contrasts, comparisons, differing points of view and as a last step using these insights to write a paragraph or, in other words, to write a piece of history based on the evidence in the sources.

Globale assessering van opstelle

Die opstelle sal holisties (globaal) geassesseer word. Hierdie benadering vereis dat die opvoede die totale produk as 'n geheel sal bepunt sonder om die samestellende dele te merk. Hierdi benadering moedig die leerder aan om 'n individuele mening aan te bied deur gebruik te maak van geselekteerde feitlike bewyse om 'n argument te ondersteun. Van die leerder sal nie verwag word om slegs "feite" uit te spoeg om sodoende 'n hoë punt te behaal nie. Dit sal leerders oor ontmoedig om "modelantwoorde" voor te berei en dit dan te reproducere, sonder inagneming van die spesifieke vereistes van die vraag. Die holistiese nasien van opstelle gee krediet vir leerder se mening. Holistiese assessering, anders as inhoudgebaseerde nasien, penaliseer nitaalontoereikhede nie, aangesien die klem op die volgende val:

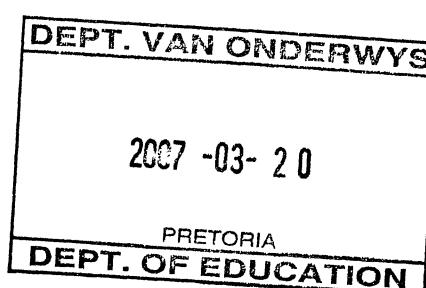

- die konstruksie / daarstel van 'n argument;
- die toepaslike seleksie van feitlike bewyse om so 'n argument te ondersteun; en
- die leerder se interpretasie van die vraag.

Assesseringsprosedures van 'n opstel

1. Hou die sinopsis in gedagte wanneer die opstel nagesien word.
2. Met die eerste deurlees van die opstel moet regmerkies toegeken word vir
 - 'n relevante inleiding (in riglyne vir nasien/ memorandum aangedui met 'n 'bullet')
 - vir elke hoofmoment (in riglyne vir nasien memorandum aangedui met 'n 'bullet')
 - 'n relevante slotopmerking (in riglyne vir nasien memorandum aangedui met 'n 'bullet')
 - bv. in 'n antwoord met 5 hoofmomente sal daar 7 regmerkies wees.

Die volgende addisionele simbole kan ook gebruik word:

- inleiding, hoofaspekte en slotopmerking nie behoorlik gekontekstualiseer nie
- verkeerde stelling
- irrelevantie stelling

- herhaling
- analyseer
- interpretasie

VRAAG 1: AFRIKA IN DIE TWINTIGSTE EEUVRAAG 1A

Nasionale onafhanklikheid sou slegs 'n verlangse droom vir die Afrika kolonies gebly het as dit nie vir die ontwaking van Afrika Nasionalisme na die Tweede Wêreldoorlog was nie.

Stem jy saam met hierdie stelling? Staaf jou argument.

SINOPSIS

Die kandidaat kan of saamstem of nie saamstem met die stelling. Maar, die antwoord moet daarop wys dat Afrika onafhanklikheid plaasgevind het as gevolg van 'n kombinasie van faktore – dit was nie eenvoudig 'gewen' deur die eise van die Afrika nasionaliste binne Afrika nie. Aan die ander kant was onafhanklikheid nie slegs 'gegee' deur die koloniale moondhede nie. Terwyl die kandidate kan verkies om erkenning te gee dat Afrika Nasionalisme die vernaamste faktor was, kan hulle nie aandring dat dit die enigste faktor was nie. Die antwoord vereis 'n gebalanseerde argument.
