

Section 1: Directed Writing

You are advised to write between 200 and 300 words. Total marks for this part: 30.

Task

Your class is organising a project to help some people in your community. You decide to write an article for your school magazine to encourage other students to join in this project.

Write your magazine article. You must include the following:

- details of the people you are helping and why you are helping them
- details of the project you are organising
- what other students can do to help.

Cover all three points above in detail. You should make sure your article is informative and persuasive. Start your article with a suitable headline.

Section 2: Creative Writing

Begin your answer on a fresh page.

Write on one of the following topics.

At the head of your essay put the number of the topic you have chosen.

You are advised to write between 350 and 500 words. Total marks for this part: 30.

- 1 Describe how you are like and unlike one other member of your family. (Remember that you are describing yourself and not just telling stories.)
- 2 Should all school pupils be taught to cook? Give reasons and examples to support your view.
- 3 Write a story which includes the sentence: 'Although I knew what I wanted to say, at the important moment I could not open my mouth.'
- 4 Good friends.
- 5 Write about an occasion when you worried about a mistake you made but everything turned out well.

BLANK PAGE

Permission to reproduce items where third-party owned material protected by copyright is included has been sought and cleared where possible. Every reasonable effort has been made by the publisher (UCLES) to trace copyright holders, but if any items requiring clearance have unwittingly been included, the publisher will be pleased to make amends at the earliest possible opportunity.

University of Cambridge International Examinations is part of the Cambridge Assessment Group. Cambridge Assessment is the brand name of University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate (UCLES), which is itself a department of the University of Cambridge.