Read the following passage carefully.

Our Environment

It was the first day back at school after the Easter holidays and Samuel Simpson was not in a good mood. Easter had been such a good break and Sam did not feel like returning to work. (paragraph 1)

"Why are you in such a bad mood?" whispered Tiger, whose real name was Timothy. "What's the matter with you?"

"I'm not in a bad mood," growled Sam. "It's just that everyone else is so cheerful."

Sam scowled and looked the other way. (paragraph 2)

"Now then," said Mrs Wilson from the front of the class. "It's time we made a start. This afternoon we are going to begin our new topic, which is Our Environment. I think we'd all agree that we want to do whatever is possible to avoid litter and pollution in our environment." Mrs Wilson paused and looked at the children staring back at her. "Any ideas? What do you think we could do to improve the environment?" (paragraph 3)

Tiger's hand shot into the air and he waved it about frantically. Mrs Wilson nodded at him. "We could design our own posters, Mrs Wilson, telling people not to drop litter or pollute the town," suggested Tiger enthusiastically. (paragraph 4)

"Excellent idea, Timothy," said Mrs Wilson and she rubbed her hands with pleasure. "We'll definitely design our own posters and we'll display them around the school. We could even ask some of the local shops if they would put up a poster in their window. What else could we do?" (paragraph 5)

Rita Hooper had a suggestion. "Why don't we start by clearing up our new conservation area now that Mrs Lewis' class have made the pond?" Mrs Wilson's eyes lit up! (paragraph 6)
