A Pet for Danny

1. On his birthday, Danny went to the zoo with his friends. Nathan, Aaron, and Anna. Danny enjoyed looking at the different animals. They saw elephants, tigers, monkeys, zebras, giraffes, and a panda. Soon it was time to go home.
2. On the bus the children sat on the front seats. Danny sat next to Anna. 'I've got you a present,' said Anna.
3. 'Thanks,' said Danny, 'Where is it?'
4. 'Mum said to leave him until we got home,' explained Anna.
5. 'Him?' asked Danny, amazed.
6. 'Yes,' said Anna. When they arrived at Danny's house, she showed him the present.
7. 'His name is Oscar,' Anna told Danny.
8. 'He's beautiful!' said Danny, pleased.
Oscar, fat and golden, swimming round and round his goldfish bowl, was beautiful.
9. 'My father got him from the pet shop,' said Anna. 'And he called him Oscar because he had a goldfish called Oscar who learned to come for food when he called his name. Dad said to tell you the goldfish is very intelligent.'
10. In the evening, Anna's Dad came to take her, Nathan and Aaron home. 'Happy birthday, Danny! I see Anna managed to part with Oscar after all!'
11. 'What about if we share him?' suggested Danny.
12. 'That's generous of you,' said Anna's Dad approvingly. 'You see she took him to her bedroom last night and I thought she was going to keep him,' Anna's Dad explained.
13. 'He swims faster in the dark,' said Anna.
14. 'See you tomorrow,' said Danny. Nathan, Aaron and Anna waved 'Goodbye'.
15. Danny received other presents for his birthday. His Grandma gave him the tickets for the zoo. Nathan and Aaron gave him a kit to build a dinosaur, and his parents gave him a jigsaw puzzle. But his first pet was his favourite present.
16. Later that evening Danny lay in the dark and looked at Oscar. He did swim faster. He flickered like a golden-grey ghost of a goldfish, half invisible. Danny was so thrilled to have a pet of his own.

H. Comprehension

Read the following passage carefully.

Rosie and the kitten

After school Rosie went to the farm with her grandmother. Her grandmother needed to pick up some eggs from Mrs Bowen. She was going to make a cake that evening. (paragraph 1)

While her grandmother was talking to Mrs Bowen, Rosie went to sit on the footstep of the old tractor in the farmyard. As she sat there, she saw a ginger kitten with a bright pink nose coming out of the barn.

(paragraph 2)

Rosie wanted to stroke the kitten, but it was scared of her. Luckily, she had a ham sandwich in her lunch box. She opened the sandwich, and crumbled it into little bits. Rosie threw a bit of sandwich on the ground a little way away. The kitten was very hungry. It pounced and ate it whole. (paragraph 3)

Rosie threw a larger piece close to her feet. At first the kitten stared at her, but then it moved forward carefully. Soon it was just close enough. It ate the piece of sandwich quickly with one eye on Rosie all the time. (paragraph 4)

The kitten licked its whiskers and looked at her hopefully for some more. Rosie smiled. It was close enough to touch. This time, she just held out her hand with the last bits of sandwich in it. (paragraph 5)

The kitten came forward and hurriedly licked the crumbs from Rosie's hand. Then Rosie moved her hand slowly and gently on the top of its head. The kitten jumped in surprise. It looked at her with large green eyes. It was not used to being stroked. (paragraph 6)

Suddenly, Rosie's grandmother called her. It was time to go home. Grandmother's voice frightened the kitten and it raced for the safety of the barn. (paragraph 7)
