Section 4

Read the passage and answer in short.

Winter was approaching when Paul left Palestine and went to Rome by ship. He was going there to be judged in the Courts of Rome. He was arrested because he was an Apostle of Jesus. On their way to Rome, a thunderstorm took place. On the ship there were many who feared drowning. But Paul said to them: “Friends, do not be afraid because no one will drown. During the night an angel appeared to me and told me that the ship is to hit an island.” They spent fourteen days in such a storm. Finally, the ship got wrecked against the rocks by the waves. In spite of the rough sea, all those on the ship managed to reach land safe and sound. As soon as they reached land, they got to know that the island was Malta. The Maltese gave them a friendly welcome and lit a bonfire so that they will get warm. Saint Paul stayed in Malta for three months.
