GOD IN OUR LIFE

Read the following passage and then answer the questions.

How wonderful creation is! How beautiful life is! Each time I look around me I see great things indeed. I look up and see the boundless reach of the heavens. When I walk around the coast of Malta, I see the endless extent of the sea. When I go out for a walk in the countryside, I see the beauty of flowers, plants and insects. Creation around us shows us how great and powerful God really is.

A certain man called Job, who lived a long time ago, also saw what you and I see. The story of Job is found in the Bible, in the Old Testament. At times Job used to think that God did not create all things well. But one day God appeared to him in a storm and spoke to him. From what the Lord said to him, Job recognised his smallness and his ignorance. Job understood how great and powerful God is.

1. Who created heaven and earth? Mark the correct answer with an X.

- (a) Job ☐
- (b) you ☐
- (c) God ☐

(1 mark)

2. How is creation around us? Mark the correct answer with an X.

- (a) Good and beautiful ☐
- (b) A dark place ☐
- (c) Not everything is good ☐

(1 mark)

3. What does creation show us about God? Mark the correct answer with an X.

- (a) That he is great and powerful. ☐
- (b) That he is small and does not know anything. ☐
- (c) That not everything he did is good. ☐

(1 mark)

4. Where do we find the story of Job? Mark the correct answer with an X.

- (a) In the Old Testament ☐
- (b) In the New Testament ☐
- (c) In my diary ☐

(1 mark)

5. When did God appear to Job? Mark the correct answer with an X.

- (a) When he was in his field ☐
- (b) On a very hot day ☐
- (c) In a storm ☐

(1 mark)
