

1. Read the following and then answer the questions.

A weather report gives us information about the weather. It also provides a forecast for the next twenty four hours. Mark with a sign (✓) the five things we usually find in a weather report.

1	the amount of rainfall during the day
2	the UV index
3	news from Italy
4	films showing in Maltese cinemas
5	the wind direction
6	the roads that will be closed for repairs
7	the day and night temperatures
8	traffic accidents during the last 24 hours
9	the temperature in European capital cities
10	a list of recently published books

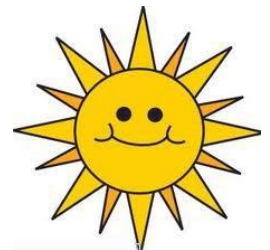

(1 mark x 5 = 5 marks)

2. Read the dates carefully, then complete the following two weather reports.

Use the words and phrases from the boxes:

16 degrees Celsius	sunny and fine weather	5 mm	9
34 degrees Celsius	cloudy and rainy	Zero	3

DATE:	Saturday 10th February
WEATHER:
WIND:	strong, blowing from North West
RAIN:
UV INDEX
TEMPERATURE

DATE:	Sunday 8th August
WEATHER:
WIND:	light, blowing from South East
RAIN:
UV INDEX
TEMPERATURE

(1 mark x 8 = 8 marks)

3. Underline the WRONG phrase.

1. Deserts around the world are covered by (rocks, sand, flowers, ice).
2. In a hot desert one can find abundant (water, sand, mountains, sun).
3. In a cold desert one can find abundant (rocks, ice, soil, stones).
4. In certain deserts around the world we can find (forests, oases, camels, extreme temperatures).

(2 marks x 4 = 8 marks)

4. These sentences are about BIRGU. Say whether they are TRUE or FALSE.

		TRUE / FALSE
1	Birgu is situated in the port of Marsaxlokk.
2	Birgu is built on a peninsula.
3	Birgu is Malta's capital city.
4	In old times Birgu was completely surrounded by bastions.
5	Birgu is also known as Città Vittoriosa.
6	Most roads in Birgu are very wide.
7	At the tip of Birgu peninsula we find Fort St Angelo.
8	In Birgu we find a church dedicated to St Lawrence.

(8 marks)

5. Answer the following questions about THE GOZO CITADEL.

1. Write down the name of the Gozitan town just outside the Citadel.

_____ (2)

2. Mention two places of interest we can visit inside the Citadel:

(a) _____ (1) (b) _____ (1)

3. The Citadel was built to protect the Gozitan population from sea pirates. Three features that are still there today and that provide proof of this are:

1: _____ (2)

2: _____ (2)

3: _____ (2)

4. The Citadel is beneficial to our country even today. Why?

_____ (3)

(13 marks)

6. Read: When we talk about The Old Cities of the Maltese Islands we usually mean Mdina, Birgu and the Gozo Citadel. Answer the following questions about THE OLD CITIES.

1. Mention one feature that is common to all the three cities.

_____ (2)

2. Mention one feature that is found in Mdina and in the Citadel but not found in Birgu.

_____ (2)

3. Mention one feature that has not changed but remained the same through time.

_____ (2)

4. Give one reason to explain why we should look after these three Old Cities and, where necessary, do restoration works.

_____ (3)

(9 marks)

7. Say whether these statements about TOURISM are TRUE or FALSE.

1	The majority of tourists who visit Malta come from Latin America.
2	When in Malta, tourists talk to the Maltese in the Maltese language.
3	Our Megalithic Temples are popular with tourists.
4	The sea around the Maltese Islands is a great tourist attraction.
5	Keeping a clean environment helps to attract more tourists to Malta.
6	Tourism helps the Maltese economy.
7	It's better and quieter for us when tourists don't come to Malta.
8	Nearly all tourists visiting Malta visit Valletta.
9	Tourists visiting Malta pass through the airport or the Grand Harbour.
10	We should be polite to tourists.

(10 marks)

8. Read: Paul, a Maltese boy, met a fisherman at a Maltese fishing village.
Fill in the blanks to complete the dialogue between Paul and the fisherman.

Paul: What kind of fishing boat do you use?

Fisherman: _____ (1)

Paul: What do you do when the weather is really bad?

Fisherman: _____ (1)

Paul: What method do you use to catch fish?

Fisherman: _____ (2)

Paul: Mention one fish you usually catch from the sea around Malta.

Fisherman: _____ (2)

Paul: You told me that you are a part-time fisherman. What does this mean?

Fisherman: _____ (2)

Paul: Now, would you like to ask me some questions yourself?

Fisherman: Yes of course. You seem to be very interested in fishing. Have you ever heard of AQUACULTURE?

Paul: Yes of course. I can explain it. Aquaculture means:

 _____ (2)

Fisherman: Good. Do you know where we have a centre for aquaculture in Malta?

Paul: _____ (2)

Fisherman: Very good Paul. Some day I'll invite you to come fishing with me. Good Bye.

(Total = 12 marks)

9. Read: Floods and draught are two examples of EXTREME WEATHER conditions. List two problems connected with these two conditions. Look at the examples.

FLOODS

Example: rubble walls break down

1.

2.

DRAUGHT

Example: bad harvests

1.

2.

(2 marks x 4 = 8 marks)

10. THE OLYMPIC GAMES. Fill in the blanks with the given words.

Zeus	horse	Ancient	Pierre de Coubertin	lances
Olympus	allowed	races	laurel leaves	god

The people of _____ Greece believed in more than one _____. For the Greeks, _____ was the greatest god. According to the same Greeks, these gods lived on Mount _____.

In time, Greeks began to organise sports and games in honour of their gods. Among such games one can mention _____ races, the throwing of _____ and various _____. Women were not _____ to participate in these games.

Winners were crowned with wreaths of _____. Slowly the games stopped being held until a Frenchman, _____ revived the games again in 1861.

(10 marks)

Answer the following questions:

- The Olympic Games are organised every _____ years. (1)
- How many circles are found on the Olympic flag? _____ (1)
- What do these circles symbolise? _____ (2)
- What prizes are awarded to the Olympic Games' winners today? _____ (2)

- What is the ideal of the Olympic Games? _____ (3)

(Total = 19 marks)

END OF PAPER