Case studies

The case studies printed in this booklet should be used when answering the questions in the Hospitality: Reception and Accommodation Operations Intermediate 2 examination.

Case Study 1 - The Woodedge Lodge

The Woodedge Lodge is part of a small group of hotels providing reasonably priced accommodation.

It is situated on the edge of a tourist area within easy reach of major road networks.

The Woodedge Lodge has 50 en-suite bedrooms, of these 10 are twin bedded and the remainder are family rooms.

The Woodedge Lodge provides continental breakfast and evening meals only in its restaurant.

All rooms are provided with tea/coffee making facilities, TV and telephone.
The reception department has the following organisational structure.
Reception Manager
Receptionists

Case Study 2 - The Millennium Hospital

The Millennium Hospital is a general hospital with 250 beds. The hotel services department is responsible for accommodation and facilities servicing. The organisational structure is:

Each ward has 25 beds consisting of $5 \times 4$ bedded areas and 5 single rooms with private facilities. Each area has its own bathroom and sluice facilities. The wards have been decorated and furnished to enable appropriately high standards and services.
