Fill in the blanks with the correct word from the list below:

Animals too are God's _____. He provides for their _____. Through their simple life they bless and _____ the Lord. Men and women also should take care of them and show them _____. God wanted to entrust animals to man whom he created in his own _____. Man uses them for his own just needs. But it goes against man's _____ to be cruel or to _____ animals unnecessarily as when a person does this for pleasure or _____. We should love animals and guard them from unnecessary _____. We should remember, however, that it is not becoming for man to spend great amounts of money in favour of animals, great amounts that could be used to uplift human beings from situations of famine and _____ in which they find themselves.

SECTION 3

(18 marks)

Read the following passage and answer the questions:

God alone is the living Being from whom all other life comes: the life of vegetation, the life of fish and of birds, the life of animals, above all the life of man. In the Bible, we find that life is a gift given by God Himself to man. Man therefore must cherish this gift of life confided to him; and not only should he guard and care for it, but he should make it grow and improve it. The life of man reached its fullness with the coming of Jesus Christ the Saviour.
