Read the following passage and then answer the questions.

God took the man and settled him in the Garden of Eden to cultivate and take care of it. Then God gave the man this command: "You are free to eat of all the trees in the garden, but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you are not to eat; for the day you eat of that, you are doomed to die."

Now the snake was the most subtle of all the wild animals that God had made. It asked the woman: "Did God really say you were not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?" The woman answered the snake: "We may eat the fruit of the trees in the garden. But of the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden God said: 'You must not eat nor touch it, otherwise you will die.'" (Gen 3, 1-3)
