After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John with him and led them up a high mountain, where they were all alone. There he was transfigured before them.² His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them.³

And there appeared before them Elijah and Moses, who were talking with Jesus.⁴

Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters - one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah."⁵

He did not know what to say, they were so frightened.⁶

Then a cloud appeared and covered them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!"⁷

Suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus.⁸

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus gave them orders not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.⁹

They kept the matter to themselves, discussing what 'rising from the dead' meant.¹⁰
