(20 marks)

My name is Zacchaeus. Because of my job, people do not respect me at all. Once I heard that Jesus was about to come to our town. I wished I could see him at least; however, since I am a very short man, I could not see him in the crowd. I thought I could climb up a tree on the way where he would pass; and so I did. My wish was fulfilled because, when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to me that he wished to dine with me. You can guess how happy I was at this. I promised that I would change my life.

Answer

1. What was Zacchaeus' job? (2 marks)

2. Why did people dislike persons like Zacchaeus? (2 marks)

3. What was the name of the town where Zacchaeus lived?

4. What did Zacchaeus do to see Jesus? (2 marks)

5. What did Jesus expect from Zacchaeus? (2 marks)

6. What did Zacchaeus do to please Jesus? (2 marks)

7. What do we learn about Jesus from this story? (4 marks)

8. Which sacrament did Jesus give us to be reconciled to him after sinning? (2 marks)

9. Name another event from the life of Jesus when he forgave sinners. (2 marks)
