F. Read the following passage and then answer the questions.

Now, in these days, when the disciples were increasing in number, the Hellenists protested against the Hebrews because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution. And the twelve summoned the body of the disciples and said, "It is not right that we should give up preaching the Word of God to serve at tables. Therefore, brethren, pick out from among you seven men of good name, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this duty. But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word. And what they said pleased the whole multitude, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip and Prochorus and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch. These they set before the Apostles, and they prayed and laid their hands upon them.

And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and many of the priests were obedient to the faith."
