Comprehension - (5x2m)

Read the following passage and write the correct answers in the blanks:

Dinosaurs lived long ago. One kind lived in a desert. One of these dinosaurs laid some eggs. It made a hole in the sand and put the eggs inside. It covered them with sand.

A wind started to blow. It was strong. It blew and blew. More sand blew over the eggs. Soon they were far under the sand.

A long, long time went by. There were no more dinosaurs. The desert was there. The eggs were still there but they had changed. They had turned into stones!

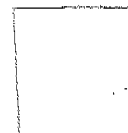

Some people came to the desert. They were looking for old things. They found the stone eggs.

Before that, no one knew how dinosaurs were born. Now they know. Dinosaurs came from eggs!
