SECTION I : COMPREHENSION (II) (5 X 2 marks)

Read the passage carefully. Then answer the questions below.

Once upon a time, there lived a clever young man, Jack, who could solve many problems on his own. Many people called him 'Clever Jack'.

One day, as he was searching for wood in the forest, he realised he had lost his way. The sky soon turned dark. He could barely see his hands in front of him. He wondered how he could find his way out. He was very scared. He tried shouting for help but no one could hear him.

Suddenly, he saw a huge bird drinking water at a lake. It had legs as thick as tree trunks. Clever Jack came up with an idea. He took off his turban and used it to tie himself to one of the bird's legs. He waited.

After a while, the huge bird rose to the sky and carried Clever Jack out of the forest.

61. Why did many people call Jack 'Clever Jack'?

62. What was Clever Jack doing in the forest?

63. How big were the legs of the bird?

64. Why did Clever Jack take off his turban?

65. What happened when the bird rose to the sky?
