B. Read the passage carefully.

It was recess time at Lucky Primary School. Amin and his classmates decided to play football in the field after they had finished eating their sandwiches. They organised themselves into two teams and started to kick the ball eagerly from one person to another. Even the blazing sun did not slow them down.

Amin then decided to pass the ball to Ben, the team's top-scorer, so that he could score a goal for their team. However, Amin kicked too hard and the ball hit Ben on the head. Ben immediately fell to the ground, holding his head and groaning in pain. Amin rushed over to Ben and told him that he was going to get help. He then dashed off to the staff room.

After Amin told his form teacher, Mrs Gopal, about the accident, she quickly ran to the field. She then got some of the bigger boys to help carry Ben to the sickbay. After that, she called for the ambulance. Ben's parents were also informed.

Fortunately, Ben's injuries were not serious. He was treated at a nearby hospital and sent home that evening. Amin felt bad about hurting Ben. He apologised to Ben and promised his friend that he would be more careful in the future.
